

From Masonic Globalism
to Messianic Globalism

Mondialismo
massonico

Morte

Mondialismo
messianico

Resurrezione

“The world governments fall into the hands of the Antichrist. These powers seek to persecute God's elect-Jews and non-Jews alike and subvert them. Many will mistakenly believe the new world government of the Antichrist to be the promised Messianic Kingdom”

Table of Contents

General Summary: Apostasy, Revelation, Apotheosis.....	5
Introduction	5
Chapter I: Two Powers in Struggle	7
Satan's Destructive Plan:.....	7
Table 1. Prometheus' Project	8
Table 2. Napoleon's Project	8
Table 3. The Nazis' Project	9
Table 4. The Mondialists' Project	9
Table 5. The Pharisees' Project	10
Table 6. The Anti-Christ's Project	11
Table 7. After the Jacob's Anguish.....	12
Chapter II: Yesterday's Power.....	13
1. Legitimate and illegitimate human power	13
2. Hitler's Personality	13
3. The Protocols and Hitler.....	13
4. Who Financed Hitler?.....	14
5. Rothschild's blood in Hitler's veins?	14
6. The Jews in Hitler's will	18
7. Comment on the Hitler Case.....	19
Chapter III: Power Today	20
1. Two Contenders	20
2. Illuministic Dictatorship and World Government.....	20
3. The Force of Arms or that of Love?.....	21
4. The Protocols say that.....	22
5. Good and Evil dispute the World Regency	24
6. The Kingship of the Newly Elected.....	24
7. The Arm and the Mind	25
8. Terrorism	26
9. Forecasts	27
Chapter IV: The Power Tomorrow.....	30
1. The Millennium of the three 'F'	30
2. The Three Stages of the Plan of Salvation	31
3. Death and Resurrection of the Mystical Body of Christ	31
4. Jesus to Maria Valtorta.....	32
5. Jesus to Msgr. Ottavio Michelini.....	32
6. The Blessed Mother to Don Stefano Gobbi.....	32
7. Jesus to Marie Sevray	33
8. Jesus to JNSR	33
9. The New Day	34
Chapter V: Old Israel and New Israel.....	35
1. One Exile after Another.....	35
2. One Shoah After Another	35

3. Reggie Kelly and the Jacob's Anguish	37
4. Two Very Different Concepts: Israel the People and Israel the Nation	38
5. Chosen People: From the Old to the New.....	38
6. Israel Nation: Human Legitimacy, not Divine	39
7. From Today's Globalism to the Messianic One	40
8. Arthur Katz to the Jews of the Diaspora.....	41
Farewell (to Non-Jews).....	44
Farewell (to the Jews)	44

Dedication:

To Mary, daughter of Israel, Mother of God and Humanity

«Through you, Mary, I love all the Jews of the world. I dedicate these written pages of mine to you. Help the readers to understand them for what they are: an act of hope towards the People who saw you grow up on earth. Since now, in Heaven, your Motherhood extends to all the peoples of the world, I ask you to intercede with God so that by virtue of it this land of ours, divided and tormented for centuries, may soon come to unity and peace. » – J. De Parvulis

General Summary: Apostasy, Revelation, Apotheosis.

APOSTASY: World governments fall into the hands of the Antichrist. These powers seek to persecute God's elect –Jews and non-Jews– and subvert them. (Religion and homeland are no longer considered sacred concepts but, rather, as crimes). Many will mistakenly believe the world government of the Antichrist to be the promised Messianic Kingdom. ^[1]

Note ^[1]: Masonic Globalism is not wanted by God, and yet it will serve as the purifying filter for Messianic Globalism, which is the one willed by God. The latter corresponds to the Happy Millennium that St. John describes at the beginning of chapter 20 of Revelation. It is a period reserved for holy people. Only they alone will know how to endure the persecutions of the anti-Christ without hating anyone.

APOCALYSIS: At the end of the great persecution of the Antichrist, God the Father intervenes and eliminates evil in three days (three days of darkness).

APOTEOSIS: God the Holy Spirit confirms in grace the survivors of the Great Tribulation (cf. "First Resurrection," Rev. 20:4-6). God the Son returns to Earth in the person of Christ and establishes His Messianic Kingdom (according to the promise made). Beginning of the New Era.

Sources of information

- 1) History
- 2) The Prophets of the Old Testament (the Bible)
- 3) The Prophets of the New Testament (the Bible)
- 4) Contemporary Christian Prophets
- 5) The Magisterium of the Catholic Church (Directives of the Popes of Rome)
- 6) Rabbi Kaduri's Spiritual Testament
- 7) The Christian Testimony of the Jew Arthur Katz

Introduction

The chaos in the world today is so great that many, in anguish, exclaim: If things do not change, it will soon be the end of everything.

Yet, is there not the divine promise that before the end there will be a splendid Kingdom on earth, like a foretaste of the heavenly Kingdom? When will this Kingdom come? Will we see it someday?

To answer these questions, God uses his prophets as spokesmen. They are usually ordinary people of Jewish or non-Jewish descent, our contemporaries. Their combined messages create a mosaic revealing a vast and wonderful project. A Divine project?

In order to understand the meaning of the images in this mosaic, I seek to focus on the prominent role of the Jewish people. For example, a scene illustrating the world-wide marasmus that frightens humanity today shows that this marasmus is not the result of chance but depends on the irreducible will of a small number of powerful Pharisaeic-minded Jewish families.^[2] These families are preparing to dominate the world by exploiting in their own way the biblical concept of the Kingship of Israel. To achieve this end, they have secretly created a conspicuous multinational army, that of the Freemasons, which secretly does what mercenary armies openly did in the past.

^[2] How many Jewish families are willing to dominate the world? Their number, some say, is limited to three, but according to others it can reach twelve. The economic power of these families is unlimited because since 1913 they have controlled the production and circulation of the currency of all the countries of the world. Contemporary Prophets warn that these children of Israel are selling out their Primogeniture for a plate of lentils. They are, in fact, putting before the transitory to the eternal, as Esau, Jacob's brother, did before them. True primogeniture, which is spiritual, does not interest them. Their spirit is Pharisaeic. So strong in them is the lust for material goods and human power, that in order to achieve absolute power they set out to destroy, one after another, all the structures of the existing world system. Absurd? Not to them. They claim that Order comes from chaos (Latin: Ordo ex chaos) and that if chaos is not there one must manufacture it, that is, artificially create it. They want to imitate God, who in order to create the present order eliminated the previous chaos. In 1717 these children of Israel founded in London a secret army of acolytes who in time spread throughout the world, multiplying exorbitantly, to the point of improbability. These are the Freemasons. In their secret councils the Freemasons claim that in order to have a new world, we must begin by destroying the old one, that is the present one. This is also stated in their motto, which in Latin sounds, Ordo ex chaos. Let's assume that with the help of the numerous Masonic army the Pharisaic spirit manages to seize world power in short time. To reign for how long? Three and a half years?... One thing is certain: this unprecedented system (are we wrong or right to call it: New World Order?) can never be as eternal as the Pharisees would like it to be. The reason is that it does not emanate from God, the only Being capable of conceiving eternal things, but from four beings of human nature. The Kingship of Israel, on the other hand, is a Kingship conceived by God with a destiny of eternity. This at least is what the sacred Scriptures say.

I can hardly believe what I see in the mosaic, and for the sake of truth I decide to shed light on the mission the Jews received from God. I discover that God has always asked the Children of Israel to preserve holiness in them. For what reason? He did – and still does – because the House of Israel has it as its mission to enlighten the world around it, as a beacon of light intended to guide eager sailors to good harbor would do. In this sense the holiness of the Jewish People appears to me as if it were the electricity that keeps a lighthouse burning. It is obvious that if the Jews were to lack holiness altogether, the God-designed lighthouse would go out (and an extinguished lighthouse is no longer of any use; in fact, it becomes an additional danger).

Many prophetic readings convince me that today the House of Israel is the equivalent of a nearly extinguished beacon. The light it makes is so weak that God has decided to rebuild this beacon of his from top to bottom. Three and a half years of great suffering are planned for this work, due – according to the prophets – to the demolition work that with God's permission will be carried out by the anti-Christ.

I find that in the Scriptures of the past, this period is prophesied by the name of Jacob's Anguish. More recent prophecies inform me that immediately after this famous Anguish, the hourglass of History will be turned upside down. This means that a completely New Era will begin for the survivors.

Awakening to the new world, the survivors will realize that the distressful period they have just gone through, actually had a purpose^[3]: to serve as a purifying filter to the Messianic Kingdom, that holy earthly Kingdom that God has promised to men of good will as a foretaste of the Heavenly Kingdom.

^[3] This apocalyptic period is in the midst of two others that resemble it: that of the Flood, and that of the End of the World. Of these three apocalyptic periods, only the third one has value as an Absolute Apocalypse. The other two are the equivalent of two Relative Apocalypses. The second period, given its median position, could be called the Intermediate Apocalypse (this period, precisely, is designed to prepare for the Intermediate Parousia).

Chapter I: Two Powers in Struggle

Satan's Destructive Plan:

The power to run a family, a parish, a diocese, a nation, a people, the whole world, is always a gift from God. God bestows it on those for whom it is intended, but a conceited human being can always try to take possession of what does not belong to him. There is no shortage of examples from history (and mythology) on this issue.

Summing it all up, I end up with seven charts that succinctly express the chronology of the destructive Plan that Satan opposes to God's saving Plan. The confrontation is between two powers fighting against each other. Since Satanic action targeting the earth needs human accomplices, Satan chooses them from among those who thirst for power, the most bitter and deadly thirst there is.

Table 1: THE PROMETHEUS' PROJECT

To steal power from the deity. Consequences: pain is introduced to the earth.

Table 2: THE NAPOLEON'S PROJECT

To steal power from European Sovereigns, and move from divine right to secular power (with a democratic flavor). Consequences: several million dead.

Table 3: THE NAZIS' PROJECT

To steal from European Governments (already all secularized) their respective powers, and replace them with a single European Government. Consequences: sixty-six million dead.

Table 4: THE MONDIALISTS' PROJECT

To steal the power from the world's National Governments, and replace it with a One World Power. Expected consequences: six billion (!) dead.

Table 5: THE PHARISEES' PROJECT

To Proclaim themselves masters of the Earth by exploiting the biblical concept of the Kingship of Israel.

Table 6: THE ANTI-CHRIST'S PROJECT

To exercise power for himself, not for the Pharisees who put him in charge.

Table 7: AFTER THE JACOB'S ANGUISH.

The hourglass of History is turned upside down and lets down its first new grain.

Table 1. Prometheus' Project

To steal power from the deity. Consequences: suffering is introduced on earth.

Prometheus is that character who in classical mythology tried to wrest divine authority from Jupiter by stealing his scepter. This contained the thunderbolt, the symbol of supreme power. Prometheus' punishment was to be chained to the rock of torment... The legend of Prometheus somewhat reflects the story of Original Sin.

What are the members of the financial caste doing today, since they already control the world economy?^[4]

^[4] This caste secretly controls the International Monetary Fund (the famous IMF) and is made up of Pharisees. The mentality of these modern Pharisees is as elitist as that of their ancient fathers, those whom Jesus called a race of vipers and whited sepulchers. Today's Pharisees form an oligarchic group that by dint of crimes and intrigues (produced mainly in the last two centuries), has succeeded in giving itself the right to print the currency of all the nations of the earth, and to control its circulation. (Officially these rights acquired force of law in 1913. Cf. footnote 2)

Financial power no longer satisfies them; it is not enough to satisfy their infinite ambitions. Now they want absolute power, so they act like Prometheus.^[5]

^[5] The Messianic Kingdom, which God promised to Humanity through the Israelites, is a kingdom of peace and happiness. The Scriptures say so, but said Kingdom cannot be established on earth before God's appointed time. To claim to bring it about in advance, is an evil temptation. To impose it by violence after changing the soul (which thereby ceases to be divine) is a sacrilegious thing.

Assuming that this half-dozen over-rich oligarchs succeed in seizing political power on a global scale as well, what on earth would happen when each of them begins to fight with his neighbor to secure for himself the supreme power monopoly?

Table 2. Napoleon's Project

To steal power from the European Sovereigns, and move from divine right to secular power (with a democratic flavor). Consequences: several million dead.

Imitating Prometheus, Napoleon attempts to seize power that does not belong to him. Power is granted by God to those to whom it is intended, not to those who dare to demand it, or stretch out their hand to take without asking. The case I want to talk about occurs in Paris on December 2, 1804, in Notre-Dame Cathedral. Instead of waiting for the coronation by the Pope, who was invited for it, Napoleon decides to leave the Pope aside and crown himself. He takes the crown and places it on his head, uttering the famous words, "God gave it to me, woe to those who touch it."

Thus, Napoleon is crowned emperor by no one, because self-crowning means self-proclaimed, and only God has that right. ^[6] But on the spot no one dares to breathe a word in the face of the prevaricating gesture. The Pope, for his part, also endures the humiliation in silence.

^[6] Napoleon does not ask God for imperial power. He only pretends. The proof lies in the fact that during the ceremony of investiture, he leaves the Pope aside and chooses to crown himself (a huge difference separates a title received from a stolen one).

The Pope knows that God's Justice is neither blind nor deaf, and a few years later Napoleon finds himself in exile on the island of St. Helena, humiliated to the extreme. He is forced to live far from everyone, like an abject being. What was the benefit of the crown he put on his head when no one could afford to contradict him? Like Prometheus – so was Napoleon!^[7]

^[7] Divine Justice is merciful as long as man lives on earth, but when the earthly trial is over, Divine Justice cannot help but be what it is: precise and absolute judgment.

Table 3. The Nazis' Project

To steal from European Governments (already all secularized) their respective powers, and replace them with a single European Government. Consequences: sixty-six million dead.

The following testimony confirms the historical data that Hitler's Germany found itself enslaved to Nazism overnight, the famous Crystal Night. The testimony is from Martin Niemöller who says.

«Before World War II I owned several factories and properties. When someone asked me if the Nazis were numerous, I answered that the real Nazis were few. I was not lying. Instead, numerous were those who were pleased to see that there was a return to German pride. For the most part, we Germans were engrossed in a thousand other matters, and we did not concern ourselves with these things to any great extent. »

Today Mr. Niemöller continues his story by saying: «Like most of my compatriots, I too was convinced that the Nazis were too crazy to be taken seriously. I was therefore content to watch them without reacting. Suddenly we were all trapped. We found ourselves caught, with no freedom to maneuver and no freedom to escape. It happened overnight. For us it was the end of the world – of our world. My family lost everything. The Allies destroyed my factories and I found myself in a concentration camp. »

With Hitler there was talk of establishing a New European Order, today there is the talk of establishing a New World Order.

What took place in Nazi Germany could be repeated now on a global level, the difference is that the new dictators will no longer be satisfied with one continent. They will want them all. (Will the entire Planet be enough for them)?

Note that the conductors are always the same: people who delude themselves that they can steal God's power. They want it at all costs, as soon as possible, and all for them.

Table 4. The Mondialists' Project

Stealing power from the world's National Governments, and replace it all with a One World Power. Expected consequences: six billion (!) dead.

The globalists want to take over planet Earth and rule it together with the ultra-elitist Illuminati group. These believe they are entitled to rule the world because they are of the Jewish race. Already they pull the strings of world political life, but they do not let the public see them in watching the spectacle of the political puppets they manipulate. They stay well hidden. Well established Strategy.

The photo reproduces a strange, unique monument that arose in 1980. Someone had it erected in Georgia (USA) near the town of Elberton, heading north on Road No. 77. It consists of six very heavy monoliths, five of which are placed vertically, and are six meters high. To identify the place, I used the Atlas of the American Automobile Association, and to my surprise I found that the topographical coordinates indicating the exact location were: G7.^[8]

^[8] A game of chance this G7?

Who funded the "monument"?

The signature is missing, but the messages carved in eight languages on the vertical flagstones reveal it indirectly. They are Malthusians, whose theories claim that the world's population is excessive.^[9] The Malthusians who had this monument built, are not happy that there are too many people on earth. They claim that in order to have an orderly and harmonious world, six billion people must be eliminated as soon as possible. Six billion... A misprint?

^[9] This is not the first time the goddess Reason is worshipped by man. The revolutionaries of 1789 treated her in the same way.

This is not a misprint. The first sentence of the text says: «Keep Mankind under 500 million, in constant balance with nature. »

Who invented this figure?

The pundits of globalism invented it half a century ago, when some of them ^[10] decided that to keep Humanity under control it was necessary to have a world population of 500 million people, no more. Since there are six and a half billion people on earth today, they say that we absolutely must take 11 out of 12 people, out of the way, that is six billion people. This is the real reason why the globalists are preaching from the rooftops that we need to reduce the world population, not the food they qualify as being... insufficient.

^[10] Kissinger and company.

Table 5. The Pharisees' Project

To Proclaim themselves masters of the Earth by exploiting the biblical concept of the Kingship of Israel.

Today's Pharisees think of themselves as the eye of the pyramid which in this picture represents the "World Government."

Although the Adversary is far more intelligent than any human being, he would not succeed in sowing death on earth if he did not find among us, who dwell on earth as at home, accomplices willing to channel his evil, that is, to spread it.

Who are these accomplices?

Jesus called them Pharisees. Their race has not died out with the passage of centuries. They do the same things again today that their fathers did at the time of Christ: steal, deceive, sow discord, harm inconspicuously, kill secretly. The world does not see them, and if it does, it does not look at them, distracted as it is by a thousand useless things. What matters most to these evil beings are material wealth, human power, earthly glory.^[11] The Adversary pleases them, but he does so by demanding something very precious in return: the blood of the innocent.

^[11] Today's Pharisee – like yesterday's – believes himself to be an enlightened being, and as such he thinks he is superior to other human beings. He is persuaded that he forms the aristocracy of the Chosen People and thus represents the most chosen portion of God's elect (who, however, is not named). This status, according to him, assures him the privilege of having numerous rights and no duties. Among his numerous rights he includes the right to exploit at will all the races of the world (including the Jewish race to which he belongs) and the right to arbitrarily anticipate God's predicted time for the coming of the Messianic Kingdom.

Why is the Pharisee so interested in the Messianic Kingdom that he wants to anticipate its time?

The thing is because the Pharisee thinks he can take possession of the Messianic Kingdom as one takes possession of any human kingdom by cheating, lying, and dazzling one's neighbor. God, however, does not want his chosen ones to confuse the World Government with the Messianic Kingdom – the Pharisees' government with his; then the victims of the Pharisaic blunder that now threatens us, are to be found only among those who through pride or conceit, refuse to love the Truth as it deserves.

How did the idea of having a world government come about?

It arose down the centuries, progressively. The Pharisee always dreamed of achieving on earth a universal Empire likely to secure him wealth, power and glory. Not to be offered to God, as some might believe, but to himself. The Pharisaic spirit cares not for divine interests, but for itself, only for itself.... The effort that the Pharisee devotes to the realization of his universal Jewish Empire spans dozens of centuries, and this project of his bears a name laden with meaning: Mystery of Iniquity. It is the Pharisaic project par excellence, a diabolical, deadly project. A contemporary painter represented it by drawing a large octopus. In the drawing, the brain of the octopus represents the Pharisee, and the tentacles represent the various Masonic lodges.

What are the Masonic lodges for? To carry out commands.

Whose? Those of the brain!

Whose brain? Of the puppet master.

And who is the puppet master? I'll leave it to you to guess... [12]

[12] The activity of the Illuminati resembles that of puppeteers. A puppeteer animates his puppets by maneuvering them with strings. The strings cannot be seen, and the puppeteer keeps himself in the backstage, where no one sees him. Those who look at the puppets must have the impression that they are not manipulated with strings, but that they move autonomously.

Table 6. The Anti-Christ's Project

To exercise power for himself, not for the Pharisees who put him in the saddle. The Jacob's Anguish.

To lead without depending on the Pharisees (even though they themselves put him in power).
Jacob's Anguish.

Being greedy for material goods and human power, the Pharisees delude themselves that they can steal from God the political authority necessary to possess the Earth. Since stealing in the Pharisaic style is stealing legally, that is, with impunity, the Pharisees believe they can get away with Divine Justice as they can with human justice. But does Divine Justice resemble human justice?

At any rate, the Pharisee who has been working for centuries to establish a world government suddenly decides to entrust the reins of that government to an individual full of charm and seduction. He is convinced that this individual will serve his interests as previous political puppets have always done.

Twist: instead of acting as a puppet, the charming individual ends up believing himself to be God and wants to be worshiped by all human beings, including the Pharisees! The Pharisees' rejection provokes a far-fetched war through which Satan tries to bring about the self-destruction of Humanity. Unable to target the Creator, he, Satan, attempts to destroy His work, which is us, the human kind. The chaos of this Third World War is enormous, extreme, and to pay for the guilty who are still the innocent, which in this case are all Jews and all Goyim [13] of good will.

[13] For the Jews, the Goyim are the non-Jews.

Good people strive to live and let live, but they succeed less and less because the charm-filled individual turns out to be the anti-Christ, and his laws stubbornly oppose the only vital law – the law of love preached by Christ.

Circumstances make the first ones to pay for the excessive greed of the Pharisee and the excessive cruelty of the anti-Christ to be the very innocents of the Jewish world. Is History repeating itself? In Herod's time innocent children were slaughtered one by one, now innocent victims die en masse, by the thousands, by the tens of thousands, by the hundreds of thousands. It is the time of the Jacob's Anguish. The epicenter of the carnage, according to the prophets, is Palestine, the one occupied by today's State of Israel.

The Adversary attempts to destroy Humanity beginning with those to whom God has given precedence in everything. He would be capable of it, but God does not want it and does not allow it. He only allows the Adversary, with his cruel malice, to test the love that dwells in us, and which guides – or should guide – the life of each one of us.

Table 7. After the Jacob's Anguish

The hourglass of History is turned upside down and lets its first new grain begin to fall.

The hourglass of History is turned upside down and lets its first new grain begin to fall.

The Pharisee has been working to have a world government for himself. The anti-Christ takes advantage of this to get drunk on the power the Pharisee put in his hands. Neither of them achieves the ultimate victory.

The fact is that to become Leader of the Nations one must be confirmed by God, not by oneself. This prompts the Holy Trinity to intervene directly at the moment when the planetary crisis reaches its peak.

God the Father eliminates all the evil in the world in three days. ^[14] God the Son returns to earth and establishes His Kingdom by confirming to the Leadership of Nations the people He has chosen. ^[15] God the Holy Spirit pours out His charisms on all the people who have given their lives for the sake of Truth, and who now resume their lives. They are with Jesus, who finds it pleasant to be with them. It is the New Jerusalem. ^[16] No trace of the power-hungry ancient folks. Their time is truly over.

^[14] The prophecy of the three days of darkness is one of the best known.

^[15] Two thousand years ago Jesus left the earth and ascended to Heaven through the clouds. Now the same thing happens in reverse. How long will Jesus' physical presence on earth last? It will last, I suppose, as long as it takes to establish His earthly Kingdom.

^[16] The New Jerusalem should begin on earth with the First Resurrection that St. John prophesies at the beginning of the 20th chapter of Revelation.

On earth, life resumes. In the midst of the awakening, ^[17] the chosen ones of the New Era discover that Satan's attempt to provoke the self-destruction of Mankind has ultimately contributed to the realization of the Salvific Project: to filter Humanity so that the survivors will be people truly worthy of the New Era, and can enter it as one enters a hall prepared long ago for special Weddings, those of the Divine Creator with His deified creature, and not halfway, but perfectly.

^[17] This awakening is described not only by today's prophets but also by ancient ones. (See for example the biblical passage from the prophet Isaiah, the one entitled The New Creation.)

Chapter II: Yesterday's Power

1. Legitimate and illegitimate human power

Human authority definitely has an origin. Human, divine, or diabolic origin? Where does the power that in certain cases a human being has – or may have – to give orders to other human beings, come from?

Human authority comes from God, but while some human beings recognize God, others do not. The former put divine order before human order; the latter do not, they do the opposite. For them God does not exist, so neither does the hierarchical order that the former say depends on Him. Consequence: their act of rejection of God exposes them to demonic influence. The process is simple. A man who rejects God, forces God to withdraw. His human authority ceases to be fertilized by God (because God is rejected) and God's Adversary takes advantage of this to occupy – himself – the vacated place. He does this surreptitiously, letting the concerned person believe that everything works as before, that nothing has changed. But in the aforementioned man, selfishness takes the place of love, and injustice takes the place of justice. Oppositions and mutual contentions are born, wars break out.

If a man, who turns away from God, leads an entire nation, the people who suffer, because of this one leader who becomes unjust and evil, are numbered in the millions. History offers many examples of kings who became tyrants over time. How many are not the Herods of history? Nero, Caligula, Mussolini, Stalin, Adolf Hitler?

The disorder that plagues Humanity has an origin, and the cited examples explain it. They are examples worth remembering: Historia est magistra vitae.

2. Hitler's Personality

Who is Adolf Hitler regardless of what we already know from history books? Pius XII believed him to be possessed by the devil, and some prominent people held the same belief. For example, the King of Belgium, Leopold III, and the commander of the German troops stationed in Belgium (General Alexander von Faikenhausen) had informal meetings from time to time. The German general was not an overly convinced Nazi, and he occasionally expressed his doubts with people he trusted. The king of Belgium was one such person. During a meeting that took place between the two, Leopold III told the general that a few years earlier he had met Hitler in the town of Berchtesgaden. The Belgian king described his meeting with Hitler as follows:

«I was impressed by his gaze, which contrasted sharply with the insignificant physique of the personage. He seemed to be inhabited by a spirit that was not his own. At certain moments he seemed empty altogether, and absent. Then he seemed to come back to life only because his doppelganger was taking him back. But it was not him really. He is an unimportant being, an almost absolute nothingness. »

This episode is not unique. The next one featured a Catholic priest from the city of Schonstatt: the priest found himself one day in a crowd a few meters from Hitler. He kept a vial of holy water in his pocket, and decided to use it to bless the Führer. He discreetly threw some holy water in Hitler's direction while reciting an exorcism formula. Hitler's reaction was immediate. He began to look around in a strange, hallucinated way, as if he wanted to protect himself from a dark threat.

3. The Protocols and Hitler

There is a booklet entitled: Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Adolf Hitler read it, and ended up considering it a mirror of Jewish mentality in general. In his Mein Kampf he declares:

«What numerous Jews do perhaps unknowingly is found systematically exposed in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion. It matters little to know which Jewish brain is the author of these revelations. What matters is that the Protocols reveal the nature and activities of the Jews, and they do so irrefutably, describing very well their inner logic and their ultimate goals. »

Hildebrand Santangelo, in his book: The Last Battle, says Hitler decided to annihilate the Jews when he discovered the boundless Jewish ambitions revealed by the Protocols booklet. In the Führer's thinking, the authors of the Protocols were not just three or four fanatics of Jewish elitism, but all Jews. Hitler was convinced that all Jews considered themselves to be God's chosen ones to rule the earth. He was so sure of this that he decided to annihilate their entire race.^[18]

^[18] The authors of the Protocols arrogated to themselves the right to dominate the world. In his Mein Kampf Hitler claims the same right.

4. Who Financed Hitler?

Alongside this thesis is another one that the Führer was created by a small group of Pharisaic-minded Jews, professional bankers, and financiers of lucrative international projects. Through occultism – satanic by definition – these over-rich and over-powerful Jews allegedly transformed the mediocre person of Corporal Hitler into a leading figure.

It is known that Hitler was a fan of occultism, and that he frequented satanic groups in Vienna as a young man. He therefore ended up being noticed, intercepted, motivated, possessed, educated, and finally manipulated by these Jewish bankers, or their emissaries. Cooked properly, the young corporal received prodigious proposals, designed to enable him to leap over the steps of power at full speed. ^[19]

^[19] According to historian Walter Langer, Hitler was financed by the Rothschilds.

The Jewish bankers transmitted some of their enticing proposals to the young Hitler. When Hitler received them, his alien spirit ^[20] welcomed them with open arms, the more so because the accompanying gold made every project of human power and glory feasible, and immediately.

^[20] Alien because he was invaded, i.e., subjugated by the Occult Forces.

Today, the descendants of these bankers use their financial power to convince the world, through the mass media they have a monopoly on, that it was Hitler who eliminated six million innocent Jews, not the capital that was provided to him ^[21]. To the reader to judge.

^[21] Satan is at the head of the Occult Forces, and grants world domination to those who can pay for it. With what? With human blood, preferably innocent blood. The Pharisees know these esoteric matters... and agree to sell their innocent brethren to Satan in exchange for world domination. Thus, the innocent pay for the guilty.

5. Rothschild's blood in Hitler's veins?

(Text by David Icke). In medieval Germany, the Bauer lineage consists of occultists. When in Frankfurt in the 18th century, Mayer Amschel founded his financial dynasty together with the Illuminati of Hesse, a part of the Bauer chose to be called Rothschild.^[22] Said name is derived from an ancient esoteric symbol, the red-shield, that the said family decided to adopt to represent its genetic line. Later the said symbol became associated with the State of Israel, and then with the entire Jewish People. The association did not occur before the Rothschilds chose it as their family emblem, but after. ^[23]

^[22] This is the Star of David, or Solomon's seal, or hexagram. (In English it is spelled "Red-schild"; in German "Rotesschild"; in French "bouclier rouge," or "sceau rouge.")

^[23] Today the Rothschilds are headed by David of Rothschild, of the House of France, son of Guy, who died in 2007.

In the early 18th century this symbol was chosen by the Rothschilds as a family emblem, but later the family decided to use it to represent the State of Israel as well (which the Rothschilds founded for economic reasons related to the oil they transported to the West through the Suez Canal).

Although this emblem—which is an esoteric symbol—bears the name Star of David, or Seal of Solomon, historical sources of Jewish origin confirm that there is no connection to associate it with David, or Solomon.

My theme is this: whenever someone talks about the Rothschilds, or questions their work (or that of any other person belonging to the Zionist organization) the said individual ends up being accused of anti-Semitism, or Nazism. Doesn't that seem strange? Yet it does.

How will they treat me now if I say that Hitler and the Nazis were financed by the Rothschilds? It was they, the Rothschilds, who organized the German Führer's seizure of power. To do this they used the Bank of England and other British or American institutions, such as Rothschild's Kuhn & Loeb, the same through which they financed the Russian Revolution.

The heart of Hitler's war machine was the giant IG Farben industrial complex. This German industry had an American subsidiary controlled by the Rothschilds through the Warburgs (their servants). For example, Paul Warburg was a director of the Central Bank of America at the time of its founding, then he was a director of the Federal Reserves, and in 1913 he became a director of the American IG Farben, the company that was later given the task of organizing the forced labor camps at Auschwitz. This American IG Farben was a division of Standard Oil, owned by the Rockefellers. ^[24]

^[24] The Rockefeller empire was created by the Rothschilds. For details, see David Icke's two books: And the Truth Will Set You Free, and The Greatest Secret.

During World War I and World War II, the Rothschilds owned all the German information agencies, and thus controlled the information intended for the Germans and the rest of the world.

As if by a miracle – oh, wonder! – when the Americans and their allies entered Germany, their soldiers discovered that the IG Farben facilities, though the heart of Hitler's war machine, had not been destroyed by bombing. The same had happened to Ford's industries, another Hitler foothold. The other industries had been completely destroyed. It is evident that the hidden force that advanced Hitler and his war machine, were the home of the Rothschilds, a Jewish family that was normally supposed to help, protect, and encourage the Jewish faith and its People.

The fact remains that even today the Rothschilds use the Jewish people for their own interests, abusing them ad nauseam. The Rothschilds treat the mass of the Jewish people with contempt, and this behavior of theirs is shared by the rest of the Illuminati. To them the Jews are just human groups, to be used as a pretext for the realization of their program, the creation of a World Government. As soon as this project is realized, the Rothschilds will be masters of the world [...]

Everyone thinks that the Rothschilds support the Jewish People, whom Hitler tried to exterminate, but who financed Hitler and his enterprises? An ordinary person is used to thinking that it is not possible that the Rothschilds financed Hitler, the author of countless crimes. Really? Let's look at the facts a little more closely.

According to the book The Thought of Hitler written by psychologist Walter Langer, not only was Hitler financed by the Rothschilds, but he himself was a Rothschild, and as such was taken in by the royal family of England. Hitler would have been protected by the House of Windsor in the same way and for the same reasons as was the war hero Lord Mountbatten, a Rothschild and Satanist himself. This protection was granted to Hitler by the House of Windsor through the German house of Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha. Members of Hitler's royal kinship, especially on the German side, were among his most enthusiastic admirers. They knew where this descendant came from. The history of the Illuminati shows that these people are very attached to their genetic lines^[25] and this allows us to understand the reasons that allowed Corporal Hitler to rise to power so quickly.

^[25] The Illuminati care a great deal about their genetic code (which normally receives the designation of reptilian) and they give it such a great importance that it becomes impossible for someone to come to power unless he first obtains the screening of a representative of this reptilian lineage.

Langer writes: «Alois Hitler-Hitler's father was the illegitimate son of Maria-Anna Schicklgruber. Although officially Alois Hitler's father turns out to be Johann Georg Hiedler, there are many who doubt that he is Alois's real father. Why? The reason is in an Austrian document. This document provides evidence that when Alois Hitler was conceived by his mother, she was in Vienna, employed as a servant in the house of Baron Rothschild. When the baron noticed that she was pregnant, he dismissed her, thus forcing her to return to his family. And Alois was born there.... Langer's information came from Hansjürgen Koehler, a senior Gestapo officer. The information was published in 1940 in a book titled: Inside the Gestapo, where Hansjürgen Koehler's investigations into Hitler's antecedents are discussed. The aforementioned research had been requested by Austrian Chancellor Dolfuss, who wanted to complete documents on the Hitler family. The one who allowed Hansjürgen Koehler to investigate the documents assembled by Dolfuss, was Heydrich, the great manitou of the Nazi Secret Service. Hansjürgen Koehler wrote that this document 'caused in the world an enormous whirlwind, such as never before had a document caused'. »

Page 143 of the book – Inside the Gestapo – reads:

«In the blue shirt, the second package contained the documents Dolfuss had collected for the purpose of obtaining information about Hitler. His task had not been difficult; as an Austrian state executive, the chancellor could easily find much information about the family of Adolf Hitler, who was born in Austria. Through the original birth certificate, police registration papers, protocols, etc., all assembled in the original dossier, the Chancellor had gathered all the pieces of the mosaic. Hitler's grandmother had arrived in Vienna and had been hired as a servant to a wealthy family, but one thing had gone wrong for her: seduced by her master, she had become pregnant, and for the birth of her child she had been forced to return to her native country.

Where did she work, in Vienna? Easy problem to solve. At that time, citizens of Vienna had to be registered with the police. Servants and their masters were forced to pay a hefty fine if they failed to get registered. Chancellor Dolfuss managed to find the young woman's registration file. The ward had placed herself in the service of the Rothschilds as a servant... Hitler's unknown grandfather was present in this house. The Dolfuss file adds no more. »

Is it true that Hitler's desire to rule Austria had something to do with his desire to destroy evidence of his origin? One correspondent did extensive research on the issue, and finally wrote the following:

«It seems to me that Hitler knew his genetic position long before he became chancellor. In difficult times members of the Hitler family would go to Vienna. Hitler's father was still young when he left his native country to go to Vienna in search of his fortune. In December 1907, Hitler became orphaned by the death of his mother, he too left for Vienna. He left shortly after his mother's funeral, and no one knows exactly what he did in the ten months that followed! It is a kind of vacuum that history fails to clarify. Since it is now established that Hitler was a Rothschild, I believe that he and his cousins met during this period, that his possibilities for future projects were evaluated during this very interval. » [26]

^[26] The Rothschilds and the Illuminati have many illegitimate children, and these children grow up under other names. (It is possible that Bill Clinton is a Rockefeller born this way, says Icke.)

Who, then, was Hitler's grandfather? The answer came to me through a correspondent of a website. Hitler's father –Alois– was born in 1837, at a time when Salomon Mayer, of the Rothschild house, was living alone in his Vienna home. His wife no longer lived with him, because the couple's marital relationship had become unbearable, and she had left to live in Frankfurt. The son they had had together, Solomon Anselm, spent most of his time between Paris and Frankfurt, away from Vienna and his father. Thus in 1837, Solomon Mayer was alone in his home in Vienna, the one where Hitler's grandmother was hired as a servant. ^[27]

^[27] Hermann Von Goldschmidt, the son of Salomon Mayer's principal employee, published a book in 1917, where he says that "in the 1840s Salomon Mayer showed a reckless enthusiasm for young girls, and enjoyed perverting them by leaving it to the police to extinguish rumors of his scandalous adventures."

Who knows whether Hitler's grandmother was seduced by her master, Solomon Mayer? Documents say that this young woman became pregnant around this time, and her son became federal chancellor of the German republic. Other documents reveal that to wage war Hitler was financed by the Rothschilds. Without their support World War II would not have happened.

All coincidences? I cannot believe that these are pure and simple coincidences! World War II contributed a great deal to the program of the Illuminati, who starting from it, wanted to create the basis for a World Government. In fact, the conflict allowed the creation of a plethora of institutions along the lines of the United Nations and the European Community, as they wanted, plus it loaded the nations with a huge debt burden on the loans advanced to the belligerents on both sides. Advanced by whom? ... By the Rothschilds and the Illuminati.

The Rothschilds have a plan to create a World Government. This plan assumes the manipulation of the Jewish People. The will of the Rothschilds is to uproot the Jews from their respective adopted countries in order to implant them in Palestine. The Rothschilds want Palestine to become their homeland. [...] ^[28]

^[28] Zionism is a political movement that the Rothschilds created in order to have a Jewish state in Palestine capable of securing the free passage of their oil from east to west through the Suez Canal. This issue is covered extensively on David Icke's website. David Icke also offers insights into the political activities of members of the Round Table, which he calls The Black Octopus. (The Round Table is a secret society that arose in England in the early 20th century and has now spread everywhere. Its members are able to orchestrate the political and financial activities of the entire world through the Bilderberg Group, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, and the Royal Institute for International Affairs.)

The Rothschilds are at the root of the Zionist Movement. Zionism, contrary to popular belief, does not come from the Jewish People, does not belong to their race, but is a political, and occult, movement. Many Jews are not Zionists, and several non-Jews are part of this movement.

Baron Edmund of Rothschild (1845-1934) is considered the Father of Israel. It was he who welcomed the Peace delegates to Versailles in 1919. He had begun installing Jews in Palestine as early as 1880, organizing everything in his own way, with an iron fist. For example, the Jewish settlers of Palestine received orders from him to cultivate such and such a product. In 1901 they complained about the inhuman treatment to which they were being subjected, and the lamentable conditions in which they lived in the Yishuv.

The colonists told Baron Rothschild: «If you want to save the Yishuv, let us do it our way. Give us a chance to change what deserves to be changed or improved.»

The Baron replied: «It is I who created the Yishuv, and no one else. I do not want you to sinter in my plans. No settler and no organization have the right to tell me what to do.»

In this one sentence it is possible to recognize what the Rothschilds' real dispositions were toward the Jews and, evidently, toward human populations in general. ^[29]

^[29] Icke asks, "Are these Rothschilds really Jews, or do they belong to a non-human genetic lineage? One thing is certain, they use the Jews as a tool to achieve their ends." The purposes pursued by the Rothschilds are as described in the footnote (On Zionism and its history see photos and related information on the Internet)

The outrage aroused by the genocide of the Nazis pushed forward the Rothschild agenda, which succeeded in creating a Jewish terrorism called Irgun, and Gang Stern, two armed groups that organized sabotage for the purpose of achieving the formation of the Rothschild State (Israel). These two groups did not hesitate to target the local Jewish population. On September 17, 1948, the international mediator, Count Bernadotte, was assassinated. The probable cause of the crime was that the said Count intended to present a new version of the resolution to the United Nations. The murderer was affiliated with a Zionist group controlled by the Rothschilds.

Not content with having caused incalculable damage to the Jews under Nazi rule, when the war was over the Rothschilds also took possession of their assets, as they had already done with the assets of the Russians during the revolution they financed.

At the beginning of the year 1998, at a conference I gave in southern Africa, I had a meeting with P.W. Botha, Apartheid president of Southern Africa during the 1980s. His invitation came to me as I was preparing for the conference at a place located a few kilometers from his residence. He spoke to me during an hour and a half about the manipulation of Southern Africa, and the names of Henry Kissinger, Lord Carrington and the Rothschilds soon appeared in the picture.

Then he told me: «When I was president in Cape Town, I had rather strange exchanges with the Rothschilds of England. » And he told me a story that perfectly describes the Rothschilds. He told me that they had asked to have a meeting with him and his foreign minister, Pik Botha (an emissary of the Illuminati, who, however, was not his personal friend). Then he added: «During this interview Rothschild admitted that there was a huge amount of money in Switzerland, and that this money could be invested in South Africa if we could come to an agreement on the interest rate. »

These bank accounts belonged to German Jews. The money had been confiscated by the Nazis from the Jews of Germany. After genociding them, the Rothschilds had found a way to pocket their money! This was revealed a few years ago, and it created a great scandal. With this money the Rothschilds formed a colossal fortune. Botha told me that he refused the money, but he ended the interview without telling me what followed.

Strange? Of course! But that's the way the world is. The Rothschilds continue to control the state that bears their family crest on its flag. They are the ones who run this country and its people. To what end? To permanently maintain conflicts both inside and outside its borders. It is they who control the so-called Arc of Crisis in the Middle East and manipulate en passant the oil-producing countries. Hasn't oil been at the center of the entire world economy since it was discovered? ^[30] –David Icke

^[30] The book: The bloodlines of the Illuminati, by author Fritz Springmeier, is a rich source of information on this issue.

6. The Jews in Hitler's will

This section deals with Hitler's will, which was written and signed on April 29, 1945, a few hours before his famous suicide. In this will Hitler mentions the Jews, but not the restricted group of Pharisees. Hitler makes no distinction between Jews-innocent and Jews-guilty, but those who know how to read between the lines will see that in this testament some expressions used by Hitler when speaking of the Jews have a specific meaning.

Who is Hitler thinking of when he speaks of the international Jewish clique and its acolytes? It seems that in using this particular expression and others like it, Hitler is referring to the little group of Pharisees. A few lines below, Hitler writes that this notorious group consists of international speculators of the highest order accustomed to «conspire against all the peoples of the earth. » To these individuals, he says, «the peoples of Europe are just packages of shares. »

Testament of A. Hitler.

«More than thirty years have passed since 1914, when as a volunteer I made my modest contribution to the World War that the Reich suffered. In these thirty years only love for my people and loyalty to my people have guided my thoughts and actions. Love and loyalty have given me the strength to make the most difficult decisions. No mortal before me has ever had to make such serious decisions. In these 30 years I gave all my time, energy and health.

In 1939 I did not want the war, nor did any other German citizen. It was wanted and instigated internationally by politicians and statesmen of Jewish origin or servants of their interests. Responsibility for this war cannot be attributed to me because the proposals I made to reduce or eliminate armaments are so numerous that eternity would not suffice to count and explain them all. Moreover, I never wished that after World War I, which was terrible, a second war would arise against England, and then against America. Centuries will pass, but out of the ruins of our cities and our artistic monuments will rise again hatred for those people who are ultimately solely responsible for this war: the clique of international Judaism and their acolytes!

Not more than three days before the German-Polish War broke out, I proposed to the British Ambassador in Berlin a solution to the German-Polish problem, a problem similar to that of the Saar region, which was under international control. There is no clear justification for the rejection of this offer. It was rejected only because the circles responsible for British policy wanted war, and they wanted it because on the one hand the idea of financial profits attracted them, and on the other hand the propaganda promoted by the clique of international Judaism pushed them forward.

There is no doubt that if those high-level international speculators should continue to treat the peoples of Europe as if they were parcels of stock, they will be the ones who will have to pay, for they are the real culprits in this deadly struggle. [...] Apart from that, I do not want to fall into the hands of enemies who, in order to amuse the hate-filled masses, would not be slow to set up a new spectacle promoted again by these Jews. [...] Above all else, I want the nation's leaders and their supporters to enforce the racial laws with meticulous severity, without using mercy on international Judaism, the poisoner of all the peoples of the earth. »

Signed: A. Hitler

Signed as witnesses:

Dr. Joseph Goebbels

Wilhelm Burgdorf

Martin Bormann

Hans Krebs

7. Comment on the Hitler Case

After some time, Hitler's story seems to confirm the thesis according to which he served as a puppet to a very small group of bankers of Jewish origin. His figure as Führer would have been created by these individuals whose only concern was to increase their wealth. They would have discovered him during their séances, guessing in him an element capable of leading them to the realization of their financial projects.

In his will, Hitler claims to have wanted to serve his honor and that of his people, but the most obvious result is that the war he provoked greatly enriched his financiers, leaving only him to be the villain. This is what the Pharisaic project envisaged, and this is what happened. In the time of Christ, it was the same thing. The figure of the wicked was made by the Romans, not the Pharisees, who are nevertheless the ones who stirred up the crowd so that Pilate, frightened or annoyed, decided to sacrifice the Innocent.

When Satan wanted to tempt Jesus, he, first of all, showed him the kingdoms of the earth, and then said to him: «They were given to me. They are mine. I will give them to you and they will be yours if, prostrate, you will adore me. »

Those who worship Satan get riches, honors, and powers of all kinds in return, but a pact with Satan is always paid for, and the required currency is human blood. The blood that Satan prefers is the innocent one, especially if it is Jewish blood, shed by the children of Israel. ^[31] These realities are part of the Mystery of Iniquity, a Mystery that the Pharisees know well, but whose knowledge they exploit to do evil rather than good. This is how the Jewish cabal takes shape, almost entirely composed of magical formulas of satanic origin.

^[31] The blood of the victims of the Bethlehem Holocaust and that of the victims of Hitler's Holocaust is all innocent blood. The executioners of the Shoah in Bethlehem were paid by Herod, leader of the Pharisees of his time, the executioners of the Shoah in the 20th century were paid by those who financed Hitler. Jewish and innocent blood in both cases.

Conscious or not of what they are doing, Jews who use Kabbalistic formulas renounce their birthright, symbol of eternal election, in exchange for a plate of lentils, symbol of earthly and transitory advantages.

This situation has existed since the First Human Couple, who allowed Satan to enter the Divine Creation to be the master. It is a situation that cannot last indefinitely. How long will it last?

The Christian Prophets say that, according to the Plan of Salvation, the time allowed for Satan to lord it over the earth is almost over. He has a few years left. When the time allotted to him is over, Creation will return to what it was before the Original Sin. Satan will be locked up in his stable abode, hell, and the Kingdom of God will begin on earth, headed by his true Master: Jesus Christ.

Chapter III: Power Today

1. Two Contenders

God created the world to offer man a safe abode, but since Eve allowed the Serpent to enter the aforementioned abode, the safety of the place has been compromised. On the spot there is a fight between God and the Serpent. Both want to reign. God wants to reign in respect of the freedom He has granted to man, the Serpent wants to reign by imposing his regency on man with tricks and abuses of all kinds.^[32] Contemporary Christian Prophets say that this war is about to end, and that when the war is over, the Earth will have only one orchestra director. Between God or the Serpent, which of the two will be that?

^[32] Love proposes itself, hate does not, it wants to impose itself. God is Love, and as such He proposes Himself. Those who love respect the freedom of the loved one; he leaves the person free to accept or refuse the love offered (A love that wanted to impose itself would go against his nature).

According to the Prophets, an overwhelming anticipated condemnation weighs on Satan, that of claiming world domination without ever achieving it. Evil has no right to prevail over Good, except where God permits it just enough to verify the fidelity of His servants. This means that the orchestra director will be God proclaimed King of the world, in the person of Christ.

While everyone sighs hoping for the arrival of this day of blessing for tomorrow, it is easy to see that the closer it gets, the more the actions of combat between God and the infernal adversary increase in intensity and violence. Under the circumstances, God allows us to share among ourselves the information that His Providence places at our disposal regarding this strenuous struggle. Some of them come from the Magisterium of the Catholic Church, others from the Bible, and others from God Himself, who continues to use His spokesmen: the prophets, to communicate His thoughts to us. ^[33]

^[33] There must be no contradictions between the various sources. If, for example, a modern-day prophet contradicts Biblical Revelation, it is a sign that his message is not authentic. In this case the messages of that author must all be eliminated in order to preserve the complementarity present in the works of God.

2. Illuministic Dictatorship and World Government

The expression Illuministic Dictatorship is recent because the reality it expresses is new. The thing is explained. The American writer David Icke ^[34] states that today's terrorism takes place at the behest of a small group of Jews who call themselves the Illuminati ^[35]. The mentality, that these self-styled Illuminati show to have, is the typical one of the Pharisees. They claim that the world belongs to the Jews by divine will, and since they are – or think they are – the aristocracy of the Jewish people, they make all the privileges that God grants to this people, converge on themselves. Simply put, these individuals exploit what is called the Kingship of Israel in the Bible to serve their own interests.

^[34] More information about David Icke is accessible on the Internet

^[35] The Illuministic Dictatorship referred to in these pages, is an Illuminati project. The brain of all operations is their brain. Freemasons do nothing but serve as laborers, even when they use their brains to produce intellectual works. To become Freemasons, you must swear obedience to those who from the top of the pyramid direct the whole system while remaining anonymous (and invisible).

David Icke claims that the infamous destruction of the Twin Towers in New York (on September 11, 2001) occurred at the behest of these individuals. They are the ones who would have financed it (secretly). Icke adds that the work of these individuals is not finished, that the worst part is yet to come. Now, Icke says, they want to see what happened to the Twin Towers, to happen to the current world system. Once the destruction has taken place, they want to establish on earth an organization completely different from the current one, a system conceived by them and called by them: New World Order. Such a system would ensure its creators absolute power over all the peoples of the earth. ^[36] This explains the existence of the expression Illuministic Dictatorship. It allows us to identify the system conceived by the Illuminati to govern the world. ^[37]

^[36] Ibid

[37] At the very top of the Illuminati group are a very small number of modern Pharisees. Their financial power has no limits. The reason is that they have a special monopoly, that of banknote production and financial credit distribution. This right fell into their hands in 1913, after centuries of preparation. Today they print the banknotes of all the countries of the world and control their circulation through the international financial institutions they own.

3. The Force of Arms or that of Love?

If what Icke says is true, the world we live in, is about to be catapulted into a frightening dictatorial regime. If the facts he reports are true, the life of our entire planet, the Earth, is at stake. [38]

[38] The Latin expression: Novus Ordo Sæculorum present in the US dollar means: New World Order. This project is wanted by those who are at the head of the pyramid reproduced on the back of the US dollar. They call themselves Illuminati, and believe themselves to be such. They consider themselves authorized to decide for the Creator on what is good or evil, and on what is most convenient for Humanity.

The New World Order is human work. There are only two forces that can produce human work, of these two, love is the first, brute force the second. Love bears fruit one-way, brute force another. The fruits of love have a pleasant and vital taste, those of brute force an unpleasant and deadly taste. The former belongs to God, the latter to Satan, His enemy. Since the fruits of love and those of brute force are mutually exclusive [39], the works that suit God, do not suit Satan, and vice versa.

[39] To cause confusion and to give birth to disbelief in God's holy works, Satan casts his works (which are a counterfeit of God's) a little before God does his works. The results of the diabolical versions create confusion in the spirits, and many people end up rejecting the entire supernatural world altogether, even that of divine origin. Evil versions of God's works confuse minds, which eventually tire and become skeptical of anything but pure matter.

Since the World Government is a human project, its realization will be the result of only one of these two forces: either that of love, or that of brute force. Among the Jews, each of these two views has its supporters.

Proponents of the first vision say:

- 1) Our supremacy will be spiritual.
- 2) Our supremacy will be conceived by God.
- 3) Our supremacy will be destined for all the elect of the earth (with due precedence to the elect of Israel).

Proponents of the second view say:

- 1) Our supremacy will be political.
- 2) Our supremacy will be conceived by people of the Jewish race.
- 3) Our supremacy will be destined for half a dozen modern Pharisees. [40]

[40] Contemporary Prophets – those worthy of trust – announce that some Children of Israel are selling off their most precious possession, the Birthright, for a plate of lentils. The reason? It is that they put the transient before the eternal, as Esau did before them. They have the Pharisee spirit. The only birthright that interests them is material, not spiritual. The lust for material goods and power is so strong in them that in order to attain absolute power they have begun to destroy, one after the other, all the structures of the existing world system.

The power of love is the good example, the brute force is the constraint. To find out which of these two visions deserves our support, I propose an argument that consists of five questions followed by five answers:

Question 1: Who can rightfully lead the nations in the name of God?

Answer: God is love. To deserve the title of 'Guide of the Nations' it is necessary to be confirmed by God, not by oneself, and God only confirms those who agree to set the example of love. Since the Pharisees do not believe in the power of love, they conceive their mission of 'Guide of the Nations' as if it were a power based on brute force, that of arms. They interpret the Divine invitation as God asking them to prepare themselves to be tyrants, which is impossible. God does not ask the leaders of the future world to be tyrants but beacons of light.

Question 2: To whom does God address in the Holy Scriptures? To a small group of Jewish families or to all Jews (and through them to the elect of the whole world)?

Answer: It is not possible that in the Scriptures God speaks only to a small group of Jews, the richest. God speaks to all of the Israelites, and to the whole world through them. ^[41]

^[41] The Jews will become like a beacon of light for all the peoples of the earth, but this will happen after they have converted to the law of love preached by Christ, not before.

Question 3: On whom does the prestige of those who will become 'Leaders of the Nations' depend? From God or from man?

Answer: Such prestige depends on God. The confirmation of the Divine gift must come from God, not from man. The man who proclaimed himself Guide of the Nations, would modify the Divine Plan, and in doing so would become guilty of insubordination. ^[42] The children of God, the real ones, do not try to modify the Divine Plans. They trust God and His Plans as children trust their father and mother.

^[42] The man who intends to steal from God His power forces God to withdraw. When God withdraws, the void he leaves is immediately filled by His adversary, whose works always end up in confusion, even if at first, they appear... astonishing.

Question 4: Is it permissible to intervene in a Divine Plan to change its chronology? Replacing Divine deadlines with human ones?

Answer: Anyone wishing to change the chronology of a Divine Plan would be providing God with evidence of his lack of faith in the Divine Work. The Messianic Kingdom is a Divine Work. The Pharisees know this. Those who nevertheless want to anticipate the deadlines, provide God with the proof of their foolishness.

Question 5: Is it permissible for human beings to try to steal from God what He Himself has promised to give freely?

Answer: It is not lawful for man to steal from God what God has promised to grant him freely. If a man decides to give himself a messianic kingdom by anticipating the deadlines already set by God, he is a rebel. It is as if he wanted to improve the divine project without asking for any permission from the owner who prepared it (God himself). ^[43]

^[43] In the seven tables of the first chapter, the reader finds images and comments that advantageously illustrate the five questions/answers of this section.

4. The Protocols say that...

The Church teaches that God alone deserves 'de iure' ^[44] to reign over the world. From these words comes the Christian certainty that Good will triumph over Evil. While awaiting this happy result, the struggle between Evil and Good continues, increasing as the conclusion of the battles approaches. In this type of struggle, books are part of the arsenal of warfare. Among these is one entitled: Protocols of the Elders of Zion.

^[44] De iure, is a Latin expression meaning by right. It is part of legal language

The philosophy of the Protocols explains to the insiders what must be done to conquer the world by subduing the nations of the globe one after the other. ^[45] By force? Yes, and not just with that of conventional weapons. There are sneaky weapons, much more refined than conventional ones.

^[45] In the booklet we read that if a group of people wants to intervene within a nation, or a region, in order to make their interests reign there, it is necessary that the intervention operation be based on a reason judged valid by public opinion. If the reason does not exist, it must be created by fomenting unrest within the nation itself. Without this preventive action it would be impossible to justify in the eyes of the world a direct intervention intended to fix the affairs of others. It also reads that to protect life it is necessary to know how to inflict death (on the weakest), and that deliberately provoked disorders are necessary if it turns out that a superior order deserves precedence.

The Protocols booklet contains 24 items. Those that I want to reproduce here, nine in all, offer a sample of the methods provided by the document to reduce a nation to a state of dependence. Reading the articles in full would explain even better the origin of the unrest that threatens the world today. ^[46]

^[46] Satan wants to be like God, so he tries hard to make Humanity believe that he too is capable of saving the world, making use of those People who initially cooperated with God.

- 1) The first article says that to control a country one must first control the production and distribution of its currency.
- 2) The second says that control increases if newspapers and other means of communication are added to the currency.
- 3) The third speaks of the importance of progressively gaining control of political power.
- 4) The fourth insists on the need to diminish the religious faith that the people nourish towards God: The people need human, not divine help.
- 5) The fifth teaches how to artificially cause confusion within a country. Example: «... To capture public opinion we must cause general embarrassment. This is achieved by bringing out contradictory opinions from all sides. The contradictory opinions must be numerous, and exhibited at length, enough to make the goyim^[47] lose their minds. have opinions of any kind. »

[47] Goyim is the name that the Israelites give to people alien to their faith, especially Christians. A goyim is a non-Jew. This term, for a Jew, has a rather negative connotation.
- 6) The sixth emphasizes the need to create the desire for luxury and comfort in the common man.
- 7) The seventh describes the procedures that allow for the control of national governments to be achieved.
- 8) The eighth describes the various tricks that allow you to control the presidents and leaders of nations.
- 9) The ninth shows the advantage of exploiting human weaknesses to achieve World Government. Textual example:

«And the weapons at our disposal are unlimited ambitions, ardent lusts, the implacable instinct for revenge, hatred, malice. It is we who control the all-engulfing terror. In our services we have people of all opinions, of all doctrines. We have monarchy nostalgics, demagogues, socialists, communists, and we have dreamers, manufacturers of utopias of all kinds. They are all at work: each of them acts in his own name, with the idea of getting rid of what remains of legitimate authority as soon as possible. Everyone strives to overthrow the established order. Because of these subversive acts all states are in anguish. Their governments call for peace, and to have some peace and quiet they would sacrifice everything, but we will not give them peace until they recognize our international super-Government openly, and with submission. »

The famous book: The Prince was signed by its author, Niccolò Machiavelli, but this of the Protocols, which resembles him, is anonymous. Who could have written this? Nobody says it, but the evidence shows that the mentality of the author, or authors, is that of the Pharisee.^[48]

^[48] Today's Pharisees are rich and powerful. It is a small group of Jewish families who became heirs of the mission that, in 43 after Christ, had prompted Herod Agrippa 1st to found the Mysterious Force, a secret society that arose with the pretension of defending the old Judaism. In the Middle Ages this association had almost died out, but in 1717 it revived under the name of Freemasonry. Today the association is divided into two: the arm and the mind. Freemasonry is the arm, the Pharisees the mind. Even if the mind is not seen, the movements of the arms all depend on it. The arms are not just two, but a thousand, a hundred thousand, a million, like those of a monstrous octopus.

For a Pharisee – ancient or modern – to reign over the material world is what matters most. The Pharisee worships financial and political power more than any other deity, including the God of Israel. If to reign over the world it is necessary to prostrate oneself before the power of Satan, symbolized by the golden calf, the Pharisee accepts it right away, without hesitation.

The Pharisee does not want to be seen by the public who today watch the show of his regional, national and international political puppets. In order not to be seen by said audience, the Pharisee directs his puppets while hidden behind the scenes. He wants his audience to react as if he doesn't exist.^[49] He would also like to hide the Protocols, and being unable to do so – because the booklet is now known everywhere – he finds experts who allow themselves to be paid to write in the newspapers and repeat on the television channels that the booklet is a fake. Even if it were, the fact remains that he, the Pharisee, is the only one who has always applied its philosophy, and successfully. ^[50]

^[49] Illuminati activity resembles that of puppeteers. A puppeteer animates his puppets by maneuvering them with strings. The strings are not seen, and the puppeteer remains behind the scenes, where no one sees him.

^[50] The World Government has nothing divine about it, but it will end up pretending to be divine.

5. Good and Evil dispute the World Regency

The sacred history demonstrates that an incessant struggle exists between Isaac and Ishmael, between Esau and Jacob, between Joseph and his brothers, between Herod and the Innocents of Bethlehem, between Herod and the Baptist, between the Sanhedrin and Christ, between St. Stephen and his stoners, among the Jews martyred for Christ and their executors, between the apostle Paul and his former co-religionists.

Today the war is that of Israel against 'Israel'. ^[51]

^[51] Using the exact same word (Israel) to express two completely different concepts is not the smartest thing there is, but this is also happening today. The reason is that someone gains a lot by confusing minds on this issue: Israel. In the case that concerns us, the two concepts are even opposites. The first concept means Israel People, the second Israel Nation. (See chapter 5, section 4). However, there is a way to distinguish the first from the second concept, that of using quotation marks whenever the word "Israel" is used to mean Israel as a nation.

What war is this?

It is war that is waged for the conquest of the world Regency. The battle is between the true elect and the false elect, the heirs of Jacob on one side and the heirs of Esau on the other, ^[52] the people who want to possess Heaven, and the people who want to possess Earth.

^[52] It is for a dish of lentils that Esau renounced the privileges received from God. The same thing happens whenever a Jew renounces his divine election in exchange for a human election. Instead of choosing the divine Kingship (the spiritual and eternal one proposed by God) half of today's Jews choose the human Kingship (the one that man proposes is a material and transitory kingship). This second half of the children of Israel behave as if the State of Israel (Israel the Nation) is more important than the children of Israel (Israel the People).

A normal Jew thinks that the world Regency is destined for his race because God has promised the dominion of the earth to Abraham's descendants. The promise is authentic, but in what sense should it be interpreted? There are two possible choices: the first is to interpret the world Regency as a spiritual value, the second is to interpret it as a material value. Jacob's heirs put spiritual values before material ones, Esau's heirs do the opposite: they put material values before spiritual ones. The values chosen by Jacob's heirs are eternal riches, the values chosen by Esau's heirs are material ones which, as we know, are transitory. Half of the Jews (and, consequently, half of the non-Jews ^[53]) go towards the riches of the eternal world, the other half stop at the riches of the present world, the transitory ones.

^[53] It is as if a mysterious law imposed on Humanity to become in a short time what the Jews have already become. If they are divided, Humanity divides, if they are united, Humanity unites, if they are saints, Humanity is sanctified, if they are 50% atheists, Humanity becomes 50% atheists, if they are half happy and half unhappy, Humanity becomes half happy and half unhappy, and so on... The Israelites lead Humanity by the example they set. It is a principle that St. Paul highlights when he says that the Jew always takes precedence, both in Good and in Evil. St. Paul also said that at the End of Times the Jews will convert to the law of love preached by Christ. They will all become Christians. (Rom 2, 9-10; Rom 3, 1-2).

In conclusion, the war that today sees Israel fighting against 'Israel' confronts Israel People and Israel Nation, spiritual interests and material interests, heavenly values and earthly values.

6. The Kingship of the Newly Elected

St. Paul says that the Jews are first in good and evil. I deduce from this that by Divine Will today's humanity, like that of yesterday, becomes what the Jews have already become or are becoming. If, for example, the Jews suffer, the same suffering is also communicated to Humanity, if they are happy, the same happiness invades the whole world.

Today universal happiness is not possible on earth, but it will be as soon as the Jews adopt the law of love preached by Christ. Since that time hasn't arrived yet, Evil is still present in the world, and seems to win over Good on all fronts. Today's situation makes one think of that of two thousand years ago, when Jews and Romans were about to sacrifice Jesus on the cross. ^[54]

^[54] The only difference is that today in Christ's place His Mystical Body (the Humanity of the elect, i.e., the Church) will be crucified.

By Divine Decree the victory of Evil over Good is always provisional. The provisional successes of Evil over Good are intended to prepare the foundations for the definitive victory of Good over Evil. Thus, even if today Evil conquers Good, as it conquered it two thousand years ago at the death of Christ, the Mystical Body of Christ (His Church) will not remain in death, but will rise again in glory like its Founder, Jesus Christ. Jesus resurrected in glory after three days of burial, so it will be with his Mystical Body. The Prophets affirm it.

It is possible that this resurrection is the one Saint John speaks of at the beginning of chapter XX of the Apocalypse. St. John calls it the First Resurrection, and goes on to say: "Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years." ^[55]

^[55] In Rev 20, 1-6, we read: «Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key of the abyss and a large chain in his hand. He grabbed the dragon, the ancient serpent that is the devil, satan and chained him for a thousand years. He threw him into the Abyss, locked him up, and sealed the door over him so that he would no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years were completed. After this, it is to be released for a short time. Then I saw some thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of the beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus and the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast and his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads and hands. They revived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years; the rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy are those who take part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years.» For us this text is "truth of faith" because it is in the Gospel, but since the Catholic Church has declared that Millenarianism is a heretical theory, it has provoked contradictory reactions in readers. Where does the confusion come from? From the fact that Millenarianism affirms that the presence of Christ on earth will be accompanied by feasts and orgies of all kinds. The Church has condemned the unthinkable idea of feasts and orgies, but some theologians claim that the Church has condemned the thousand years, i.e., the happy Millennium, i.e., the Gospel text. (Warning: no one can condemn an evangelical or biblical text). This misunderstanding ends up provoking a second question, also a source of misunderstanding: how long will Christ's new presence on earth last? One thousand years? Thirty years? Three years? Three days? Three minutes? The answers to this question differ. They vary from one person to another, with endless discussions. It seems to me that such discussions are out of place because the subject is not of paramount importance. Indeed, the duration of Christ's stay on earth on the occasion of his intermediate Return (alias: intermediate Parousia) does not depend on us, but on Christ's good will. It may be that His stay among us lasts the time necessary for the establishment of His Kingdom, not a minute more, not one less. Why so many discussions on such a question?

In my opinion, this means that when the Messianic Kingdom begins on earth, the victory of Good over Evil will already be definitive only for some of us. On the other hand, when the Messianic Kingdom ends, and with it the entire plan of salvation, then the victory of Good over Evil will be definitive for all.

7. The Arm and the Mind

In the human body the brain and the arms have two complementary functions. Icke implies that the Illuminati today serve as the brains and the Freemasons as the operating arm. The Illuminati, who are the mind, prepare the World Government using the Masons, who are the arm. The mastermind has decided that the World Government will be imposed everywhere, without inquiry or preamble. To achieve this, the two tools that the mind puts at your disposal are the mass media and the banking system. By controlling the mass media, we control the opinions, ideas, thoughts of individual people (the cells of the social body), and by controlling the circulation of money, we control the economic life of the social body as a whole. The economic life of a nation is linked to the circulation of money as the life of the human body is linked to the circulation of blood. If the blood circulates badly, the body is sick, and if the blood no longer circulates, death follows.

Icke says the Illuminati don't like to show themselves in public. They prefer to stay hidden, like puppeteers who pull the strings of their puppets, keeping themselves behind the scenes. ^[56] The Illuminati are not seen by the childish audience watching the show, so the puppets appear autonomous, not manipulated. For example, a member of Freemasonry never knows precisely from whom the order he obeys comes from, ^[57] he only knows that the refusal to obey would involve serious compensation for him, the loss of his job, his reputation, and in the worst cases, serious loss of life. ^[58]

^[56] Whoever looks at the puppets must have the impression that they are not manipulated with strings, but that they move independently.

^[57] The Illuminati want to be anonymous. If they cannot intervene through intermediaries, they wear a mask on their faces, or they place themselves behind a glass which is transparent for them and opaque for anyone looking towards them. The system is designed in such a way that there are no Freemasons able to tell who is at the extreme apex of the pyramid to which they belong. They do not know whose orders they obey! The Mason knows only two things: that the orders come from above, and that he must carry them out without question. (See the following note about the Freemason Malegari).

^[58] Masons must obey even if they have never seen the faces of those who give orders from above. The origin of the orders is secret and must remain so. There is a text that shows to what extent Freemasons are slaves to the system in which they find themselves. It is a letter from 1836 in which a member of Alta-vendita, a certain Malegari, complains to a certain Doctor Breidenstein – his probable immediate superior – that the forty men of Alta-vendita do not even know where the orders to be transmitted or executed. The letter says: «We want to break every kind of yoke, and there is one that cannot be seen, which is barely perceptible, but which weighs on us. Where is it from? Where is it? Nobody knows, or at least nobody says. The association is secret even for us, the veterans of secret associations. Crazy things are demanded of us, things that make your hair stand on end. For example, I learn that in Rome two of our people, well known for their hatred of religious fanaticism, by order of the supreme leader were forced to kneel in church and take communion on the occasion of the last Easter. It's not to bargain for my obedience, but I'd be curious to know where they want to lead us such rudeness. » (Mgr Henri Delassus: La Conjuración anti-cristiana, p. 158). The Masons who refuse to obey for things considered important pay with their own lives, those who instead refuse to obey what Malegari allows himself to be called 'cafonate' in this text, eventually discover that their credit with the "unknown superiors" it decreased, not increased. (The expression 'superior incogniti' is from the Freemason Giuseppe Mazzini, who in a letter to his mother used it to define the supreme leaders of the Masonic organization of which he was a member).

Unlike the Illuminati whose number is very small, Icke says that the members of Freemasonry are in the millions, and that they are present in all countries of the world and in all walks of life, even within the high and low Catholic clergy. Through their cooperation, the mind is able to issue orders in the West, in the East, to men, women, whites, blacks, aggressors, to the aggrieved, to Christians, Americans, Europeans, Israelites... To all.

Given the impressive number of Masonic minions in the world, the Illuminati would be able to decide world events in advance. Lately they used the hatred of certain Arabs against Americans to make the latter suffer the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001. Immediately thereafter they used the exacerbated patriotism of Americans to begin the invasion of Arab countries. This has generated the current world crisis. It is a serious crisis, because the counterattacks by the Americans and their allies occur on a large scale and seem designed to last indefinitely.

According to Icke, this result corresponds to what the Illuminati set out to accomplish even before the Twin Towers in New York were destroyed. In this Icke is supported by the testimony of Aaron Russo, an American who refused to cooperate with Nick Rockefeller in the advent of the World Government, and who may have paid for this refusal with his life. ^[59]

^[59] See note {58}

8. Terrorism

The friends of Osama Bin Laden, conscious or not that they are puppets manipulated by puppeteers of the Jewish race (the creators of the World Government),^[60] in the eyes of the world are those who attacked first on September 11, 2001. In this way they gave Americans the right to react as if the American nation was in a state of legitimate defense. The war reaction was triggered almost immediately against the terrorists, that is against the Arab countries that host them.

^[60] The Illuminati conceive new projects and finance them, but the manual operations are performed by people who generally belong to the Masonic system. (Freemasonry is the arm, and the Illuminati the mind. Freemasonry obeys the Illuminati as the arm obeys the mind).

The question that shrewd minds are now asking is the following: is it true that the events of 11 September 2001 were wanted by the creators of the world government (the puppeteers) to push the Americans to invade a part of the Arab countries under the pretext of fighting terrorism? Affirmative, replies Icke. If his answer is correct, then both Arabs and Americans would be puppets secretly manipulated by an occult power.

This hidden power – continues Icke – comes (is activated) by globalists who think they possess the light of truth, and that they are the only ones who possess it by right. They say and believe they are Illuminati. They want to dominate the world because they are part of the Chosen People, the People to whom God has granted the right – they say – to govern the Earth. The basis of their idea is found in the Sacred Books. The problem is that they, the Pharisees, interpret the Sacred Books as they wish, that is, upside down. The Bible says that God wants to save the world through his chosen ones, who will then be entrusted with the task of guiding the rest of the world with justice. If the Israelite who reads the Bible does so with a pharisaic spirit, the sacred Scripture changes color, and from white it becomes black. The characteristic of the Pharisee is to interpret in a material key everything that God codifies in a spiritual key. ^[61]

^[61] The top-level Illuminati are Pharisees, and the main characteristic of the Pharisee is to interpret the Scriptures in a subjective, i.e., materialistic way. (See chapter I, section 6). The Pharisee interprets in a material key everything that God codifies in a spiritual key. This makes him a selfish, antisocial, perpetually "dissatisfied" being, and therefore dangerous. The more the financial means of a dangerous person increase, the more the danger increases.

Icke claims that the atrocities of September 11, 2001 are only the first phase of the plan that high-level globalists have conceived to achieve domination of the Earth. During the next phase, he says, the manipulation will be total, to force the populations of the globe to accept the idea of a third world war, a war that some nations of the Earth – and this will be the height of hypnotic madness – will end up demanding in a loud voice.

Icke argues that the peoples of the earth are unaware of the Machiavellianism behind these operations. They are victims of a brainwashing administered daily by the mass media to all those who watch television, listen to the radio, read the newspaper. The globalists' manipulation is so effective, says Icke, that most Westerners are convinced that the fight against terrorism is legitimate and necessary. ^[62]

^[62] The purpose of the US-NATO-UK counterattacks against the Taliban in Afghanistan and against Iraq is not to capture Osama bin Laden or Saddam Hussein - says Icke - but to plunge the earth into chaos. This policy is desired and financed by the supreme leadership of the globalists, made up of Pharisees who consider this chaos as necessary for the realization of their world government. They think that to get to the new world they dream of, you have to start by destroying the "old" one. They want to make a "tabula rasa" of the current world, to bring about a world-wide "Ground zero" that serves as the basis for the order they intend to build on the ruins of the "old" one. Given the fearsome power of current weapons, the specter of general self-destruction arises.

9. Forecasts

Some think that the self-destruction of humanity is impossible, absurd. I thought so too, but I realized that man needs security, he seeks it like the air he breathes. If the populations of the earth were to feel threatened in their security, and that the world government presented itself as the only one capable of guaranteeing it (eliminating terrorism, for example), they would end up accepting the world government with their eyes closed.

Icke believes that the peoples of the earth, starting with the Americans, should reject the brainwashing that the mass media constantly apply to them. It is, he says, a collective psychic manipulation done to convince the masses to accept the idea of a world government. To achieve their goal, the Pharisees (the top of the pyramid) use the mass media of which they have a monopoly. Collective psychic manipulation is conceived by them but is applied by the Freemasons who, as we know, become accomplices of this evil due to their interested obedience to the orders coming from above.

These things appear complex but are actually simple. In short: high-level globalists finance the Freemasons to destroy the existing world organization. Purpose of the operation: to replace the current organization with something new. The order that exists is divine, the one that should replace it is human. The method suggested by the lenders to bring about change is terrorism. The originators of terrorism are the high-level globalists, the contractors are the Freemasons, ^[63] the material executors are the kamikazes whom political or religious fanaticism enslaves the whole system. ^[64]

^[63] In Latin, the expression Ordo ex chaos means: order starting from chaos (putting order where there is chaos). The expression describes the divine action at the moment of Creation. The Freemasons use it as a motto to launch a challenge to God the creator. Their problem is that instead of destroying chaos to arrive at order they do the opposite: they destroy order to arrive at chaos. (They destroy the already existing order with the false hope of eventually bringing about an order that they believe will be "better" than the one created by God.)

^[64] Kamikaze terrorists don't always know where the money that finances their acts of terrorism comes from, but their disordered passions (hate, revenge, pride) are so strong and deeply rooted, that the origin of the funds no longer matters for them.

If this is true, it is evident that the primary perpetrators of the destruction of 11 September 2001 are not the Arab kamikazes but the high-level globalists. These globalists would have used the hatred that some Arabs have towards the Americans to launch the first attack, that of September 11, 2001. Immediately afterwards they would have used the wounded patriotism of the Americans to launch military operations in all directions, so as to continue the destruction begun in America a little everywhere. ^[65]

^[65] According to Icke, Bin Laden would not be responsible for the atrocities that took place in the United States on September 11, 2001. The whole operation would have been conceived and financed by the Illuminati, who would have designed it to have a pretext intended to push the Americans to go to war against the Arab world. Icke writes: «At the time of the September 11 attacks, I had the impression that I was facing a second Pearl Harbour. » Speaking of Pearl Harbour, in Davide Icke's book (And The Truth Shall Set You Free), we read that Roosevelt, in order to be elected president of the United States, had promised the Americans not to intervene in the Second World War. To act differently, a serious fact had to allow Americans to feel like victims of an unjustified and undeserved attack. The pretext of legitimate defense would have convinced them to go to war without hesitation. The "serious event" was immediately prepared. The Illuminati conceived it and the Japanese Masonic lodges made it (Japanese Masonic lodges are part of the Illuminati game like all other lodges). In accordance with that plan, Japanese forces treacherously attacked the American port of Pearl Harbour, which provided Roosevelt with the pretext to go to war against Japan (and its allies). Similarly, the purpose sought in the events of 11 September 2001 would have been to provide the United States with a pretext to go to war against the Arab world under the guise of self-defense. David Icke says that after Pearl Harbor it was easy for Roosevelt to convince the Americans to go to war. In the same way, after 11 September 2001 it was easy for the American President to convince Americans that it was necessary to declare war on the Arab world, accused of hosting terrorism.

Myron Fagan says that more than a century ago Albert Pike formulated a plan for the Illuminati to call for three world wars, each with its own particular goal. Albert Pike would have said:

«The First World War will aim to eliminate the regime of the czars in Russia, and to transform Russia into a stronghold of atheistic communism. In order to bring about this war we will entrust our agents to exploit the points of contention that already exist between the German Empire and the British Empire, and to increase them until war becomes inevitable. At the end of the war, atheist communism will be well rooted in Russia, ready to be used to diminish the prestige of religions, especially the Christian ones, and to destroy other governments. »

«The Second World War will have the aim of allowing international communism to expand until it equals Christian countries in power. The best way to achieve this will be to use the opposition that separates fascists and political Zionists. ^[66] Thereafter international communism will be kept in check until the cataclysm predicted for the end. »

^[66] The Zionists are the political supporters of the state of Israel, and the fascists are the supporters of the two dictatorial regimes that formed the Rome-Berlin axis, later joined by Japan.

«World War III will be fomented using the opposition that exists between Muslims on one side and Zionists on the other. This war will force Islam and Israel to destroy each other. The other countries of the world will have to participate in this war by choosing one of two camps. The two sides will fight against each other to the point of exhaustion. The exhaustion must be total. Then humanity will accept the yoke prepared for it by the world government. » ^[67]

^[67] The Illuminati are the mastermind; the Freemasons are the operating arm. The former belongs to the Jewish world, the latter are simply goyim, which in Hebrew means non-Jews. The Mind, i.e., the Freemason, wants to eliminate every Throne and every Altar, because Throne and Altar are an obstacle to the realization of the World Government (alias Universal Jewish Empire). The first Throne that the Mind decides to eliminate is that of the Christian monarchy of France. To carry out this project, the Mind uses the French Masonic arm, which in a few years organizes the great Revolution of 1789 throughout its territory. History is now heading in that direction. In the 19th century, the Mind decides to eliminate the temporal power of the Papacy. He entrusts the operation to the Italian Masonic arm and in a short time, under the pretext of unifying Italy, Mazzini and Garibaldi eliminate from the map what represents the temporal power of the Papacy, i.e., the Papal State. The story follows the already established trajectory. In the 20th century, the Mind foments the First World War in order to eliminate two Christian thrones, that of the Tsars of Russia, and that of the Habsburgs of Austria-Hungary. Both fall under the action of the European Masonic arm. Historical events still continue on the same trajectory. During WWII Mastermind wants the United States to declare war on Japan (and its allies). The Mind conceives the Pearl Harbor ruse and entrusts its execution to the Japanese Masonic arm. And so on... (See also note 69).

Now, as conflicts intensify, the nations of the world are already getting used to believing that the only possibility of security is to have a world government. The false benefits offered by this government are presented as real. We think of a single police system, a single currency, an identical control system for everyone. To sell and buy, an electronic micro-chip to be inserted under the skin (as the Bible says) is mandatory. ^[68] Your refusal will be considered a criminal act, and will serve as a pretext to justify the persecution of religious or patriotic people. Many people will live in hiding, with the risk, if discovered, of being arrested and imprisoned by the world police under the stupid accusation of being intentional terrorists(!) ^[69]

^[68] Cf. Ap 13, 17.

[69] After September 11, 2001, countries around the world began to vote full steam ahead for anti-terrorism laws. These laws already allow abuses of all kinds, but the worst will come when martial law comes into effect everywhere. When the World Government is in place, citizens who refuse to let the micro-chip get under their skin will be charged with intentional terrorism. Their refusal will be interpreted as proof of their subversive intentions. Martial law will allow for their immediate arrest. They will be caught, interned, and eliminated. (There are already several hundred concentration camps in the United States. If any indiscreet journalist does When asked about these camps, he was told that they exist to combat illegal immigration as a preventive measure. But then, what is the use of the hundreds of guillotines that have arrived from France at the port of Montreal, and that Canadian truckers have transported there?)

Soon, buying and selling will become impossible for those who refuse to integrate this type of micro-chip under the skin. Many people will accept it, and by doing so they will be controlled in everything, even in their will. (The control takes place by means of magnetic waves). God warns us not to accept the micro-chip. Whoever accepts it renounces his human freedom and his dignity as a Son of God.

This is what Hell is preparing for Earth through today's Pharisees, who consider themselves to be enlightened people. They will succeed in subduing Humanity, but to lead it where? To save the world from self-destruction will require direct intervention from God.

Chapter IV: The Power Tomorrow

1. The Millennium of the three 'F'

Man lives in time, and God's Plan of Salvation unfolds throughout this time, within it. ^[70] Said Plan includes a set of millennia that the Fathers of the Church of the earliest times used to call Universal Week ^[71] because there are seven millennia. The Fathers who made this speech were set aside by scholars and then forgotten, but for those who still take their thinking into account, the past millennia are six, and today's Humanity is at the beginning of the seventh, the last of the series. ^[72]

^[70] The Plan of Salvation that God conceived has the purpose of allowing Humanity to reconquer – at the right time – the Order that existed in Creation before the original Sin.

^[71] See, for example, St. Irenaeus of Lyons.

^[72] Many modern scientists say that man was not created by God, and they invent astronomical figures to confuse minds about the time it would take animals to become human beings. The figures they put forward are never the same. They vary from one scientist to another, and quite a bit. The prophetic voices, on the other hand, are unanimous. They affirm that man has been present on earth for six thousand years.

This seventh millennium is different from the previous ones. Being the seventh in a series of seven, its place is equivalent to that of Sunday. In this sense it could be qualified as a Sunday Millennium. ^[73] Since Sunday is a day of sanctification, so also the seventh millennium could be considered a Millennium of Sanctification. As such it would correspond to the Messianic Kingdom, alias: Happy Millennium. ^[74]

^[73] This is the first time this expression has been used. It identifies the present millennium, also illustrating its function.

^[74] Cf. Rev 20, 1-6: «Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key of the abyss and a large chain in his hand. He grabbed the dragon, the ancient serpent that is the devil, satan and chained him for a thousand years. He threw him into the Abyss, locked him up, and sealed the door over him so that he would no longer deceive the nations until the thousand years were completed. After that, it will have to be melted down for a while. of time. Then I saw some thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of the beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus and the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast and his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads and hands. They revived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years; the rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy are those who take part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years.»

The Messianic Kingdom is a kingdom reserved for holy people. They will know how to suffer the persecutions of the anti-Christ without hating anyone, indeed forgiving their persecutors, as did the Apostles of Jesus and many other people who in the past were martyred because of their faith. This is exactly how holy people will earn the wedding garment that will allow them to enter the Wedding Hall, which is a symbol of the Messianic Kingdom. ^[75] In view of this Kingdom God will order that the good wheat be separated from the chaff. This will happen during the Great Tribulation which will be caused by the ferocious persecution that the anti-Christ will launch against the saints of God. But God will use this persecution to filter and purify Humanity destined to live in His holy Kingdom.

^[75] According to the Gospel parable of the ten virgins, the people represented by the five foolish virgins will find the door of the "Wedding Hall" closed. Their presence in the aforementioned "Room" would be a constant threat to the peace that derives from the justice and order that by definition reign in the "Room" itself. The Hall represents the Messianic Kingdom, alias the Happy Millennium, alias the Seventh Millennium, alias the Sunday Millennium, alias the Kingdom of God on earth.

Universal Week

The following graph represents Universal Week, with its seven millennia numbered from 1 to 7.

1° Millennio	2° Millennio	3° Millennio	4° Millennio	5° Millennio	6° Millennio	7° Millennio
						↑

This small arrow points to the seventh millennium of Universal Week. In the Bible it is called the Happy Millennium (Rev 20, 1-6), and we could also call it: «Happy (Felice), Festive, Final Millennium» (The Millennium of the Three 'F'). The Great Tribulation will serve as a purifying filter to this special and unique millennium.

2. The Three Stages of the Plan of Salvation

The World Government is a human project conceived by an elitist group that wants to make tabula rasa (wipe out) of what exists in the world to redo everything from scratch. ^[76] The trap is of diabolical origin. The Adversary has conceived it, and his human acolytes carry it out. They do not realize that they are leading Mankind to ruin. ^[77]

^[76] Some of these men say they welcome God. Because they reject the compassionate love that is the very essence of God, their way of welcoming God is only a pro forma.

^[77] It is clear that in view of a final absolute supremacy the heirs of world power would end up fighting each other. This would cause the self-destruction of humanity because atomic weapons, biochemical weapons and those deriving from nanotechnology would be used in this conflict.

It is legitimate to ask: «Could God allow Humanity to self-destruct before his Plan of Love is completed? »

It's hard to admit. Anyone who looks at God's Plan as a whole realizes that God has already saved mankind twice, the first time in Noah's time, and the second time in Christ's time. The first salvation was of a physical nature, the second was of a spiritual nature. Will there be a third rescue? The current Prophets say yes, that mankind will be saved once again, and that this third salvation will be of a divine nature.

Divine Life is the purpose of God's Saving Plan. This Plan is threefold like the Trinity that conceived it. If the Trinity decides to abandon mankind right now that divine life is almost attained, this would prevent God's Saving Plan from realizing the main purpose for which it was conceived. ^[78]

^[78] For the Creation, the Father intervened, and for the Redemption the Son intervened. Now the time of Sanctification is about to begin and it is normal for the Sanctifier, that is, the Holy Spirit, to intervene for this. Since God is Trinitarian - Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier - His salvific plan does not end with Redemption. Redemption is like a flower destined to produce fruit at the end of its cycle. In our case the fruit of the Redemption is the Sanctification (of humans who accept to be sanctified).

3. Death and Resurrection of the Mystical Body of Christ

As the first salvation is the work of the Father, and the second is the work of the Son, so the third, which will be conclusive, is the work of the Holy Spirit. Taking advantage of this third intervention of His, God will establish in the world His Holy Kingdom, the one that for two thousand years His Church has invoked with the prayer of the Our Father. In the epistle of St. Peter this Holy Kingdom is described with the words: «Kingdom of love and of truth, of justice and of peace. »

God's spokesmen say that the Creator of the world conceived this Kingdom so that the man who will live in it, will rediscover the happiness that existed in the earthly Paradise before the original Sin. The purpose of the Great Tribulation that will precede the coming of this Kingdom, will therefore be to purify mankind so that only worthy people can enter this Holy Kingdom. ^[79]

^[79] From the purifying crucible of the Great Tribulation a holy People will emerge, which by virtue of its fidelity to the Law of love preached by Christ will be judged worthy to participate in the Life of the New Era.

That said, even if the anti-Church fanatics manage to dominate the world for a while, their power will not last long: Three years? Three and a half years? Four? At the end of this time the Mystical Body of Christ will rise again (it will rise again in glory as Christ himself is risen) and all the peoples of the Earth, the remaining ones, will be part of it. If all this happens as foretold, the beginning of the Messianic Kingdom on Earth will coincide with the advent of the First Resurrection. ^[80]

^[80] The evangelist John speaks of the "First Resurrection" at the beginning of chapter XX of the book of Revelation. The passage describes the Happy Millennium, which is the Messianic Kingdom. This Kingdom is also described by Isaiah in the passages which speak of the New Creation. (See Is 11, 6-9; and Is 65, 17-25).

The following pages contain a little of what God conveys to us on this subject through his spokesmen, who are the contemporary Christian Prophets. Among these are: Maria Valtorta, Vassula Ryden, Mgr Ottavio Michelini, Don Stefano Gobbi, Françoise, Marie Sevray, Luisa Piccarreta, JNSR. Already in the Old Testament the prophet Amos said: «The Lord does nothing without first revealing the idea of him to his servants, the prophets. » ^[81]

^[81] Am 3, 7. When it comes to important things, God warns us in advance of what is about to happen. We say: Man warned, half saved.

4. Jesus to Maria Valtorta

Jesus says to Maria Valtorta^[82]: «I continue to speak to my forerunners, to those who by their holocaust prepare the ways of the Lord and evangelize in no other form but that of their holy lives.

"Exult, O my faithful servants who are not content with saving your souls, but offer yourselves so that the Light will win out over the Darkness and salvation will be given to many who are not now desirous of it. When my hour comes, I will not be alone in reigning. You shall be with Me. Beginning on this earth you shall be with Me during my Reign of love and peace. Haven't I promised you that you will be where I am and that you will have a place in my Kingdom? Like the dignitaries in a royal palace, your spirits shall be a crown for Me on earth, serving Me as luminous ministers, and they shall inherit that possession of the Earth which I have promised to the meek and which shall become possession of the Heavens when the Earth is no more.

Long before that hour, you, O just ones, shall possess Heaven. It already stands open to receive you in the hour of your passing out of your current jail. But it shall then be radiant, complete possession, known to all creatures, assumption into glory even of the flesh with which you have conquered Heaven by making it the main instrument of sacrifice out of faithfulness to your God.

Victors over Satan, who has corrupted the flesh, victors over the senses, which stir in you because of the inheritance of sin and through the instigation of Satan, you shall possess the Universe together with your God and shall be mirrors of God, who shall appear in your glorified flesh in all his splendor. You shall be similar to the Father, O holy children. Similar to Jesus, my Most Holy Son. Similar to Mary, our Queen.

You have the intellectual likeness of the Father and the human likeness of the two most glorious Living Ones in Heaven, and, since to have the Intellect is like having the Word and the Love, and where One is, the other Two in the perfect Triad are, you, in having the likeness of the Father, will be the possessors of that Perfection which made man like Him and made Him choose man as his son.

Before that hour you shall be the dignitaries of my Son; you shall see the miracle of love of an Earth immersed in peace and directed towards hearing God; you shall know what man's life would have been like if he had not degraded himself by alliance with Satan. You will not be defrauded of this hour [God's temporal Kingdom], O loving followers of Love made flesh. » (November 18, 1943).

^[82] Reading the writings of Maria Valtorta (1897-1961) makes us love the four Gospels, and allows us to better understand the prophecies of the Apocalypse.

5. Jesus to Msgr. Ottavio Michelini

Jesus says: «My son, I confirm to you once again the hour of purification, after which there will be New Heavens, a New Earth, and a new Church. The decisive intervention of my Mother, Queen of victories, will appear evident to everyone, as well as My Glory and My Power, power and glory as a true God and a true Man. A new era will begin in the history of humanity. » (June 21, 1978). ^[83]

^[83] Jesus confided several messages of current interest to Mgr Michelini. This quotation is found at the end of the message of June 21, 1978, and is entitled: "In the conditions that preceded the Flood." (V. Michelini, Ottavio: Confidences of Jesus to his priests and to his faithful).

6. The Blessed Mother to Don Stefano Gobbi

Our Lady says: «The glorious Kingdom of Christ is near, which will be established among you with the Second Coming of Jesus into the world. It is His return in Glory. It is His glorious return to establish His Kingdom among you, and to restore all humanity, redeemed by His Most Precious Blood, to the state of His new earthly Paradise. » (October 13, 1990). ^[84]

^[84] In 1973, Father Stefano Gobbi founded the Marian Movement of Priests. This Movement allows priests who wish, and lay people, to gather to pray. During these meetings, called "cenacles", after prayer the participants listen to the reading of a passage from the "Blue Book", which contains the messages that Our Lady addresses to the members of Her Movement. The worldwide set of these small cenacles ends up forming a "little flock" of pious people, which Our Lady considers part of her personal "dowry".

Our Lady says: «The moment of a universal renewal is approaching. Satan will be defeated; the power of evil will be destroyed; Jesus will establish His Glorious Kingdom among you, and thus the New Heavens and the New Earth will be formed. » (January 1, 1995).

7. Jesus to Marie Sevray

Jesus says: «At the End of Times [...] ^[85] I go back to the Beginning, and before closing Time I want to exhaust all my powers as Creator! There will be a magnificent renewal, like a splendid universal concert, every soul who says his note, the one who will have taught him the Spirit of Light and Love, the Spirit of Divine Transformations. Magnificent period of peace! Everything on earth will give Me glory! Every creature on earth will tell Me what my elect tell Me in Heaven! » (“Divins Appels”, p. 32).

^[85] The following passage is from Vassula Ryden, and speaks of the End Times: «Yes, my dears, I will give you the wisdom to be your traveling companion and your guide, and lead you to holiness; a holiness which will paralyze Satan for a thousand years, preventing him from intervening between you and my Love. When you then see the sky dissolve in flames, and the elements melt in heat, know that this is the sign of the beginning of the promise I made to you to give you New Heavens and a New Earth; as well as the renewal of my Church, the rebirth of my Church.” (Cf. True Life in God, December 19, 1990).

8. Jesus to JNSR

Jesus says: «I will descend from Heaven after the evangelization of the world, and then my Name will also be sung by the birds in their nest. All nature will sing my Return in Glory. The Wind of Love is already upon us. I'm about to arrive. So be it. » (July 20, 1997). ^[86]

^[86] JNSR is an acronym which in French means: I am nothing. This is Fernande Navarro, a mother of a family who lives in France. Jesus chose it to give us messages regarding the New Era, the Purification that must precede it, and the Cross of Dozulé.

Jesus says: «The day I come do not expect to see Me here or there. You will be told: yes, I have seen it, it is in that place. No! I repeat to you that I will come from the heights of my Heaven of Glory, and that everyone will see Me. Nothing is impossible to God. The Purification has begun. Accept my Cross which united with yours will save you, and will save all those who are dear to you, because they are even more dear to my Sacred Heart. Then I will come, and I will say to each of you: Your life belongs to Me. If you follow Me, we will walk together so that the world understands the value I accord to each of you. I want to save this world by saving each one of you. Saving your Earth is a family affair. The Father has given it to you as an inheritance. Now it's time to put her back in His Holy Hand, beautiful, clean, innocent, above all innocent because Evil had transformed her into a shapeless and dirty mass. Then the children of the Father will set to work. They will be led by Jesus, the only Son of the Father. Jesus will come to help His brothers to give back to this land the beauty it originally had. I will put so much love, so much strength into your hearts, and the Holy Spirit will give you so much ardor in Faith, in Hope, in Charity that your hearts will swell like the sails of competing sailing ships. Thus, you will transform your Earth into a garden that will be more beautiful than Eden. New land of God and men. Of what to annihilate the pride of Satan who will no longer be able to take you treacherously. I will have pushed him back to the bottom of hell, where he will fight his kind, not my souls.

Men will have acquired goodness and intelligence to such an extent that the peace of God will reside on the whole Earth. ...Yes, you will see Me, you will touch Me. When? Soon, in the next few days, after the Evangelization of the Earth. You have reached three quarters. I don't want to come before being hoped for and called: Come, Lord Jesus.!

Now evening falls all over the Earth. It covers it and it will cover it even more. There will be suffering, many pains, many tears [...] When I hear my children, those of My Divine Heart and of my luminous Cross, call me as my dear Apostles did in the midst of the unleashed waves, Help! Without You, Lord, we drown! Then I will come. Because there will be no more human pride in their hearts. My children will recognize themselves as small and weak without their God: Help, Lord! Without you the Earth dies.! Then I will come. [...] I will come like a thief who is in a hurry because the New Day is about to break. By now the horizon is looking for the light. The day that God has chosen for Himself is about to arrive, a day of glory, of peace, of joy, on Earth as in Heaven. Amen. » (November 28, 2001).

9. The New Day

«Let us admit that by God's Will the Church of Christ truly rises again. What will life be like on earth after that resurrection?»

God has promised that the Earth will enjoy a wonderful time of peace before the End of the World. This period of peace I recognize in the biblical passage that describes the Happy Millennium.^[87] It says that some human beings (those who during the persecution of the anti-Christ will have been beheaded because of their testimony to Christ) will be resurrected in glory to form the new Church, and eventually lead it. This resurrection is called the First Resurrection. ^[88] I am convinced that with this Resurrection the Messianic Kingdom will begin, which, from what we can understand, will be similar to the earthly Paradise.

^[87] At the hour of the intermediate Parousia, Jesus will return in Glory to inaugurate His Messianic Kingdom. The duration of this Kingdom is that of the "Happy Millennium" (Rev 20, 1-6) but it is difficult for us to calculate the exact time of this millennium now. The reason is that time is determined by astral convolutions. Since the Scriptures speak of a New Earth and New Heavens, it is probable that the astral configuration of the New Heavens is not identical to the current one. It means that the value of our time could undergo changes. What will the new skies be like? What will the new weather be like? It's a little early to tell.

^[88] Rev 20, 5-6: «Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him for a thousand years. »

When Jesus returns to earth He will no longer return as a Redeemer, but He will come as a glorious King. It means that the mission of Jesus as King will be to establish in us and among us His Holy Kingdom. This second return of Him, which is now imminent, corresponds to the intermediate Parousia, not to be confused with the final Parousia, the third one. ^[89] Those resurrected in the First Resurrection will receive from Christ the mandate to lead the destiny of His Holy Kingdom, which could last for a thousand years.

^[89] In the current doctrine of the Catholic Church there is a dogmatic void regarding the intermediate Parousia. While waiting for the Church to pronounce itself on this issue, it is legitimate to propose to interested people the messages that God sends us through contemporary Christian prophets. Among these prophets there are also false ones, but the authentic ones deserve to be heard.

After the thousand years, the End of the World will also arrive, and then, coinciding with the final Apocalypse, Humanity will experience one last disbandment. This tells me that not all humans of the future time will show themselves worthy of divine election, however, many are those who, having come from the Great Tribulation, today's one, will already be confirmed in grace. These, if we are to believe St. John, after having reigned on earth for a thousand years in the name of Christ, will pass from earthly to heavenly happiness without knowing death.

In place of Christ today there is His Mystical Body, the Church. Some wonder: «Is it true that the modern Pharisees and the new priestly castes will be able to crucify Christ once again in the person of His Mystical Body, the Church?»

The Prophets of God, who are his spokesmen, say that such a defeat is part of the Divine Plan, like the one the Pharisees inflicted on Jesus two thousand years ago. ^[90] Real or apparent defeat? One thing is certain: the Church will die a true death, like Jesus, but She will not remain long in the grave. She, like Christ, after three days will rise again shining with splendor. The Church's destiny is to walk in the footsteps of Her Founder, first in death and then in resurrection. ^[91]

^[90] When Jesus was crucified, the Pharisees were his mind, and the Romans his arm. Today the scene repeats itself, but in place of Jesus there is His Mystical Body (the Church), in place of the Roman army there is the Masonic one, and in place of the ancient Pharisees there are the modern Pharisees (the Illuminati).

^[91] This truth is affirmed by many contemporary Christian prophets. Among these is Don Stefano Gobbi, founder of the Marian Movement of Priests.

Chapter V: Old Israel and New Israel

1. One Exile after Another

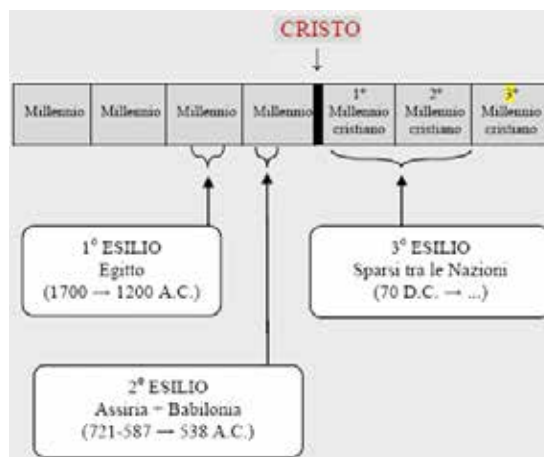

This land is a land of exile, and the valley we live in is a valley of tears. This is true for everyone, but for the Jews the exile is doubled: an extraordinary form of exile is added to the ordinary one.

The first exile of the Jewish people took place in Egypt, the second in Babylon, the third (that of the Nations) began in the year 70 after Christ and has not yet ended. For 1,940 years the Jews have lived dispersed within the nations. This explains the meaning attributed to the expression Time of Nations, and that attributed to the expression End Times. This End of Times is not the End of the World – as many ill-informed sects preach – but the end of the Time that the Jews must pass through scattered among the Nations.

The Scriptures say that at the End Times the Jews will return to their homeland. They will not return guided by human leaders, but by God, as happened at the end of the first and second exiles. [92]

[92] The Prophets say that the return that is currently taking place towards the land of Israel was not conceived by God but by man, who in this case becomes the accomplice of Satan, the grotesque imitator of God's works.

The following graph shows the place that the three Jewish exiles occupy in the history of humanity.

1st Exile: Egypt (1700 – 1200 B.C.) – 2nd Exile: Babylon (721–538 B.C.) – 3rd Exile: World (70 A.D. to now...)

2. One Shoah After Another

The word «Shoah» is a Hebrew word meaning catastrophe.

The First official Shoah in Jewish history took place 2,000 years ago, in Bethlehem, shortly after the birth of Jesus. [93]

[93] Herod's Holocaust is not the first ever, but here it represents all the massacres that hit the Jews before Herod and after him, up to the 20th century, the date of the second great Shoah, the one that took place during the second world war.

«Then Herod, realizing that the Magi had made fun of him, became furious and sent to kill all the children of Bethlehem and its territory from the age of two and below, corresponding to the time of which he had been informed by the Magi.» (Mt 2:16).

The action of slaughtering the children of Bethlehem was carried out by the Jewish soldiers of Herod, who was also a Jew. The excessive power of the number one Pharisee of the Jewish world of the time of Christ lashes out against the children of Bethlehem, who are also of the Jewish race. Jews against Jews.

The Second official Shoah in history took place during the last world war. Historians say this war would not have happened without the help of the Jewish banks that financed it. ^[94] Moreover, the same historians add, neither the Bolshevik Revolution, nor the wars of the Italian Risorgimento, nor the French Revolution would have occurred without the help of the same financial institutions.

^[94] Several historians claim that the bankers who financed Hitler also financed the Americans and their allies.

It is possible that in the face of these revelations two or three amateur historians will rebel saying that the school textbooks that talk about the Second World War do not say by whom it was financed. This means – they will say – that this conflict was not financed by anyone. When someone shows them evidence to the contrary, then they will say that it is not possible that the owners of the accused banking institutions did what they are accused of. Proof of this is the fact – they will say – that today their institutions present the Holocaust as the worst of infamies.

Mystery? Where is the truth? The mystery is only apparent. The truth is that nothing has changed since the time of Herod. Herod is dead, but his duplicity is still alive, present in the modern Pharisees who today control the world economy by applying the Machiavellian philosophy according to which «the end justifies the means.» Everything is permitted to those who believe they are superior to everything and everyone, even to God himself. ^[95]

^[95] Is denouncing the Phariseism of the modern Pharisees perhaps an act of anti-Semitism? No. Anti-Semitism is against Jews, not against Phariseism (Phariseism is a scourge for everyone, including the Jews).

In this sense, what is the difference between the Shoah of the Second World War and the one perpetrated by Herod against the children of Bethlehem? None, except the number of human beings sacrificed.

The Third official Shoah in history has not yet begun, but Jewish writer Reggie Kelly and preacher Arthur Katz say it is imminent. They do so by speaking of a catastrophic event that the experts of the Sacred Scriptures define as Jacob's Anguish ^[96]. It is an extreme catastrophe, the most horrendous of all. According to the Scriptures, it will take place at the End of Times, in the land of Palestine, which today is occupied by the State of Israel.

^[96] The Israelite Arthur Katz experienced a conversion similar to the one Saint Paul experienced on his way to Damascus. He wrote an article on Jacob's Anguish, the Holocaust yet to come. (Cf. chapter 5, section 8).

Is there perhaps a link between Jacob's Anguish and the catastrophe which here is qualified as the 'third Shoah'?

Everything indicates that Jacob's Anguish and the Third Shoah are the same thing. Let's examine the situation...

All Jews know that at the End Times ^[97] God will lead them back to their homeland, Palestine. The End Times are near, but the problem is that the Jewish project to return to Palestine today starts from a human initiative, not a Divine one. This anticipated Alya ^[98] causes great suffering everywhere as it shamelessly tramples on every principle of justice.

^[97] The expression End of Times indicates the end of the third Jewish exile (the last of all). This exile, which began in the year 70 after Christ, is not over yet. It is true that in 1948 the world witnessed the birth of the nation of Israel, but this birth is a sacrilege. The Jews faithful to the Torah say so. (Cf. note 99).

^[98] In Hebrew the expression Great Return to Palestine uses the term Alya. For a Jew, to say: I made my Alya, means: I returned to Palestine definitively. (See also note 110).

For the Jew Arthur Katz, it is a disobedience to the commitment already undertaken by their fathers to do their Alya when God will take the initiative, not before. Faced with such events, the Jews who declare themselves faithful to the Torah ^[99] speak of sacrilege. They can't accept things like that. They affirm that before God, the promoters of the Jewish state – the so-called Zionists – will be responsible for the future Shoah as the dead Herods are already responsible for the Shoah of the past.

^[99] The Association of Israelites Loyal to the Torah argues that the State of Israel is morally illegitimate. Learn more at: <http://www.nkusa.org>

Things being as they stand, this land of ours will continue to offer for a while longer the spectacle of atrocious fratricidal wars: men intent on suppressing other men, Jews and other Jews. ^[100] Rumor has it, in fact, that the bankers who financed the revolutions and wars of the last two centuries now intend to finance the greatest of wars, the one destined to bring down the structures of the entire existing world system. ^[101] If this happens, the fate of mankind will be that of today's Palestinian people. Same suffering... The only difference is that instead of the Jewish Government there will be a World Government.

^[100] According to the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, the Pharisees prefer to eliminate their victims through intermediaries or in a surreptitious manner. In some cases, the victims of the Pharisees disappear without a trace, or they die of strange but defined natural diseases. It also happens that they kill each other, or that they die because of the abuses that the Pharisees have managed to introduce into their customs.

^[101] It seems that the collapse of the Twin Towers in New York is a concrete symbol of what the Pharisees intend to do to the current world system. (Cf. notes 62, 65, 69).

The purpose? The purpose is satanic. Pushing the whole world to assume the mentality of today's State of Israel, where in practice one already lives as if God did not exist. Could God allow such things? The answer of the prophets of yesterday and today is that despite the apparent victory of evil over good, the sacrifice of the innocent will make it possible to bring about an even greater good: the definitive purification of the children of Israel and the fulfillment of God's plan of salvation.

It is true... Jacob's Anguish will purify the Jewish world in such a way that the survivors of said world will all convert to the law of Love preached by Christ. ^[102] When all the Jews present on earth live with this law in their hearts, convinced of its immense value, the example of Israel will lead to success not only for the Jewish people but for all of humanity. ^[103] No one will say: «Mors tua, vita mea. » Everyone will be convinced of the opposite, and will rather say: «Vita tua, vita mea. »

^[102] The conversion of the Jews to Christianity was prophesied by St. Paul.

^[103] The Israelites lead Humanity by the example they set for it. It is a principle that St. Paul highlights when he says that the Jew always takes precedence, both in Good and in Evil. St. Paul also said that at the End of Times the Jews will convert to the law of love preached by Christ. They will all become Christians. (Rom 2, 9-10; Rom 3, 1-2).

3. Reggie Kelly and the Jacob's Anguish

Jewish writer Reggie Kelly was asked the question: «Is it true from the Scriptures that the state of Israel is invulnerable, and that the Lord will make its land inviolable under all circumstances, including the present? »

The writer replied: «There is great confusion about Israel's current situation. Many Jews doubt that it can be straightened out since it was created in 1948, while others express an optimism that in my opinion has nothing to do with biblical teaching. Among the country's religious leaders there are those who adhere to the old heresy which attributes an invulnerable character to Israel. They admit that Israel can be attacked and surrounded by enemies, but they purposely ignore Jacob's Anguish, and they do not admit that the state of Israel can collapse.

I am convinced that the first target of the anti-Christ during the 42 months that his persecution will last, will be the State of Israel, but the majority of the religious leaders of this State estimate – despite the biblical evidence that says the contrary – that their nation will be supernaturally protected. They say that in the face of persecution the most protected Jews will be those who in obedience have chosen to live in this country, which they define as the Ark of Security. How much disappointment awaits them!

Scripture is clear on this matter, but a variety of emotional biases complicate the matter in a daunting way. The topic is more complex than it appears at first glance. This is a deception of the first magnitude, typical of the End Times. Ironically, the spirit of the messianic leaders of the State of Israel is more corrupt than it is anywhere else. »

4. Two Very Different Concepts: Israel the People and Israel the Nation

Confusing the concept of Israel People with that of Israel Nation is absurd, but this happens every day, and the confusion continues. If starting today the State of Israel were identified by the name of its main founder – who is a Rothschild – the subject of Israel would no longer be such a complex subject, and there would be less confusion in the world.

The Bible often speaks of the Kingdom of Israel as an immortal Kingdom. But which Israel is it? Of a political state or of a holy people? A chosen people have neither borders nor soldiers, but a political state has these and those. To the people of His elect, God offers a spiritual citizenship, while to the citizens of his territory the state offers a material citizenship.

The state that arose in Palestine in 1948 bears a sacred name, which is Israel. Why did its founder choose a sacred name for this nation? Why call it Israel? Were there no other names, such as: Kibbutz-land, or Rothschild, or maybe New-Palestine? The reason can be understood. The Adversary would like us to attribute to the land of Kibbutz-land the immortality intended for the true Children of Israel. It's a big deception. It is not possible for a country with political borders to be immortal or to become immortal. The immortality promised by God to His elect and the Kingdom attributed to them are the fruit of an election willed by God (not by man). ^[104]

^[104] Power corrupts. Lord Acton said so. When the powerful man declares himself immortal, he ends up acting like a capricious and arrogant tyrant (and so, in the end, everything falls on him). The immortality of the Chosen People is spiritual, and applies to Israel the People, not to Israel the Nation. Those who know how to distinguish these two concepts have no difficulty speaking of Israel with simplicity and precision, knowing that if they speak of the first, they are not speaking of the second (and vice versa).

5. Chosen People: From the Old to the New

Catholic doctrine insistently repeats that Old Israel is made up of people of the Jewish race, and New Israel of holy people of all races, including Jews.

To the Jews God offered divine adoption in primis (just as He had done with Esau with regard to birthright) but for two thousand years now divine adoption has been available not only to the Jews but to all peoples who accept the law of love preached by Christ. Consequently, today the Chosen People is made up of saints from all corners of the earth (although the first saints will always be those of Israel).

Since man, in order to reach holiness, must accept the law of love preached by Christ, when all Jews accept this law, all of humanity will become Christian. It is inevitable. Even St. Paul says so. This truth is the result of a law according to which good and evil reach the rest of humanity through the Jews. It is a law that I have only known for a few years, but the more I study it, the more I understand it, and the more I understand it, the more I appreciate it ^[105]. It is as if the Jews were the leaven of Humanity, and Humanity, like dough, would need their presence to become the bread that can only become with them.

^[105] The evil that the Jews invent for the non-Jewish world spreads immediately to Humanity, except that they are always the first to suffer from the evil they invent and propagate (the ones who pay for the guilty, unfortunately, are always the weaker, i.e., the innocent, as in Bethlehem, on Golgotha, in Auschwitz, etc...). Fortunately, this law applies not only to evil but also to good. This is proved by the fact that the first to rejoice in the good conceived and spread by the Jews in the world are (and always will be) the members of their race.

Whose, then, will be the immortal kingdom that God has promised to His elect? Whose earthly Paradise will it be, which will be followed by the heavenly one? Who will be the heirs of the holy Kingdom promised by Jesus to his Apostles and to all the holy Israelites? Will it be members of the Old Israel or those of the New?

Not the Old Israel will inherit the immortal Kingdom, but the New Israel, the holy one, made up of people of good will of all races, including Jewish. The Old Israel has known moments of hesitation, but the New Israel will know no hesitation. It will be inhabited and guided by the Holy Spirit.

6. Israel Nation: Human Legitimacy, not Divine

We have already seen that the word Israel can have two meanings, that of Israel State, and that of Israel People. The State of Israel is a nation in the Middle East, while the People of Israel is a group of people belonging to the Jewish race: the Israelites. This race has existed since Abraham founded it 3,000 years ago, while the State of Israel has existed since 1948.

The Jewish association that bears the name of Jews united against Zionism openly declares that the current State of Israel is not legitimate. The members of the aforementioned association are Jews faithful to the Torah. The reasons that lead them to declare the State of Israel illegitimate are two: the first is linked to the fact that the State of Israel arose by human rather than divine will, the second is that the aforementioned State wants to be secular rather than religious.

The five photographs collected in this section show what the mass media do not want to show: the numerous Jews who form the Jews united against Zionism association and their signs. These placards denounce the Zionists, their bad faith, and the grave injustices they perpetrate against the Palestinians.

Judaism rejects the Jewish state."
"Authentic Rabbis have always opposed Zionism and the State of Israel."
"The State of Israel does not represent all the Jews in the world."

The Jews united against Zionism states that in 1948 the State of Israel was not born by divine will as Jewish orthodoxy would like it to be, but by human will. The evidence is present in the history pages that tell of the official birth of the State of Israel. In these pages we meet the names of those who wanted the State of Israel and financed its birth. We are dealing with Jews who are extremely rich and overbearing but unfaithful to the Torah: Jews of a pharisaic nature. Their way of thinking does not coincide with that of the Jews faithful to the Torah. The pharisaic mentality does not coincide with that of the members of the Jews united against Zionism. The qualification of Zionists is applied to the former, to the latter that of non-Zionists. Sometimes it happens that the two parties confront each other in public in an acerbate but non-violent way.

"The State of Israel does not represent all the Jews of the world."

On the website of the Jews united against Zionism you can read the following: «The Zionist initiative to proclaim the State of Israel constitutes a rebellion against the divine will and against the Torah. This rebellion has generated a tide of violence and suffering. On the occasion of the founding of the heretical state, Jews faithful to the Torah deplore this attempt to ignore the teachings of the Torah, to transform the Jews into a 'secular state', and to transform Judaism into nationalism. » [106]

[106] Jews who join the worldwide association "Jews united against Zionism" oppose Zionism (which is the origin of the State of Israel) because the Zionist movement arose out of human whim, not in obedience to God's will. Those who organized it have betrayed the important promise that the Jewish people made to God at the beginning of their third exile. See www.nkusa.org.

These non-Zionist Jews advocate the peaceful dismantling of the state of Israel and insist that the Palestinian territory be returned to the Palestinians who were forcibly expelled from it. Their requests are not so well known because the international mass media do not talk about them. They voluntarily boycott them. The reason is that the people with the media monopoly are the same people who finance the State of Israel. The mentality of these people is typically pharisaic. For them, material values take precedence over everything, even religion.

"The State of Israel has no right to govern even a piece of the Holy Land."

In the year 70 D.C., at the beginning of the third exile, the leaders of the Jewish people allegedly took a threefold oath before God, recognizable in the following three acts:

- 1) Never immigrate en masse to the Land of Israel.
- 2) Remain submissive to host nations.
- 3) Don't try to put an end to exile but wait for God himself to do it.

A moral reason is added to the religious reason of obedience to the divine will (which forbids the Jews from founding a secular state). Human beings have a sacred duty to obey the Ten Commandments, and Jews are no exception to the rule. The Commandments order to respect the life of others, the reputation of others, the goods of others. Jews loyal to the Torah strive to uphold these principles, and they urge their Jewish brethren to do the same. They express their regret by saying how much pain they feel in noting the moral drifts that the Zionist movement has generated.

"Zionists do not represent all Jews."

These are their exact words: «We deplore the tragedies that the Zionist rebellion has caused among the Jews. We particularly regret that the aforementioned Zionist rebellion made them forget the fundamental precept of the Torah which says to act towards others with feelings of compassion. We deplore the tragedies that the Zionist rebellion has caused among Palestinians. We particularly deplore the deportations and the oppression of which they are victims. We deplore the unnecessary loss of thousands of human lives that have occurred in the course of the conflicts – useless and cruel – which led to the proclamation and maintenance of the Zionist state. »

Concerning the Palestinians, Jews loyal to the Torah say: «Palestinians are victims of Zionist brutality and arrogance. They are victims of a kind of Zionist narcissism that sees nothing and no one but themselves. We affirm that the Palestinian people have a right to their homeland and to financial compensation for the damages and losses suffered. Palestinian refugees must be allowed to return as soon as possible to their homeland, historic Palestine. »

"Let's discuss it without getting upset"
"The three promises we made still stand."

7. From Today's Globalism to the Messianic One

Current globalism is a Jewish globalism, not because the Jews are all globalists, but because a very small group of new Herods are. Those are enough. The ladder that leads to current globalism is very long, but its steps become visible to us the moment the phenomenon of the Illuminism appears on earth. It is a movement that claims to put man before God, reason before faith, evolution before creation. ^[107]

^[107] A person who gives precedence to himself rather than to God imitates the gesture of Adam and Eve who did not trust the order received from God but preferred one conceived by themselves.

Illuminism is followed by Modernism, father of all the abuses that today threaten the security of the world. Illuminism and Modernism coincide with the Jewish emancipation that began in London in 1716, and was progressively led by occult forces up to today's Tower of Babel. Rather than being called by its true name, which the evidence proves to be disorder, this Tower is stubbornly being called the New World Order.

For the umpteenth time the Adversary tries to destroy mankind. Since he cannot destroy it by direct action – God does not allow it – then he tries to do it through men seduced by him. Who I am? They are those who, yielding to his flattery, believe themselves superior to everything and everyone. Instead of subduing Creation in God's prescribed ways, they want to subdue it in their own way. They want the world to square with their selfish and arrogant mentality, so they act like New Herods, with the same insane cruelty.

But God is above everything, even their cruelty: just as Herod's crimes did not stop God's action but served it in spite of themselves, similarly today's globalism will act as a footstool for Messianic Globalism. It will serve as a purifying filter.

Messianic Globalism is equivalent to the Happy Millennium promised by God to humanity through Saint John the Evangelist. ^[108] It will be a time of saints. Some of them – the veterans of the Great Tribulation – will have suffered the persecutions of the Pharisees and the anti-Christ without hating anyone.

^[108] Rev 20, 1-6. (This passage is reproduced in footnote 55).

8. Arthur Katz to the Jews of the Diaspora

Arthur Katz is a contemporary Christian prophet of Jewish race. He was born in 1929 in New York and died in 2007 within the community Ben Israel (which he founded near the city of Laporte, MN, USA). He became a Christian at the age of about 33 and spent the last forty years of his life testifying to his faith in Christ. As a prophet and evangelical minister, he left written documents and numerous filmed testimonies. His life is full of edifying teachings. ^[109]

^[109] Arthur Katz's testimonies appear on the Internet in English. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Arthur_Katz

Arthur Katz argues that the Children of Israel should not return to Palestine before God's appointed time. Today many Jews do, but according to him they make a mistake. In the thought of Arthur Katz, the Jews who decide to make their Alya now ^[110] do not realize that the fact of emigrating to Israel before the time established by God means exposing themselves to the risk of dying as soon as the Jacob's Anguish begins. The horror and devastation that will characterize this agonizing period will be worse than that already known at the time of the Nazi Holocaust.

^[110] Alya, Alyah, Aliya or Aliyah is a Hebrew word which literally means 'ascension' or 'spiritual elevation'. In Italian the term should be used in the feminine, as in French. For a Jew, the word Alya indicates the act of emigrating to the Holy Land. Jewish immigrants to the Holy Land are called 'Olim'. Instead, Jewish emigrants who emigrate outside the Holy Land are called 'Yordim', and the fact of emigrating outside the Holy Land is called 'Yérida'. (See also footnote 98).

Arthur Katz writes: «Part of the controversy that I have with certain preachers today concerns the Anguish of Jacob. Some of them argue that the aforementioned Anguish is the Holocaust carried out by the Nazis. It is not possible, because the Anguish of Jacob mentioned by Jeremiah ^[111] is destined to happen in the land of Israel, not in Europe.

^[111] Jer 30, 7-10.

Let's reason: if this event had already happened, peace and security would reign in the land of Israel, while the reality is completely different. Present-day Israel lives in terror, fear, anxiety. It is evident that Jacob's Anguish concerns the future.

There are preachers who interpret these biblical passages differently from mine, but their interpretation does not take into account some details that are important to me. I had a discussion in the office of a brother who has been in the prophetic ministry for more than thirty years in Jerusalem. I showed him according to Jeremiah 30, that Jerusalem would be rebuilt on its ruins. He replied: «But he looks out the window, he looks at what is happening, all these armors, these buildings. » I answered him: «My dear, pay attention to the details of the writing. It says that Jerusalem will be rebuilt on its ruins 'for the Lord'. » (Jer 31, 38). These construction projects are of man and for man, and will turn into ruins, the ones on which the reconstruction of Jerusalem will take place during the Happy Millennium.

Of these two prophetic interpretations, which is the good one? It is no longer a question of a simple opinion, as when we discuss in a café. If now I speak of an imminent devastation that does not come, I deserve a severe reprimand. Men would be right to accuse me of being an ally of the enemy. But if Jacob's Anguish is coming and no one talks about it, the nation will suffer this great devastation without anyone ever feeling it. If no one blows the trumpet, if no one speaks of the imminent catastrophe, the people will not be prepared, and the catastrophe will annihilate the nation with all its inhabitants.

On this subject I had for the first time a bitter discussion with my colleagues regarding those who speak in the name of God. How can we recognize the true prophets, those who interpret the biblical scriptures correctly? Today the question of true and false prophets is more relevant than ever, and it is important that the Church be able to discern which are the voices that bring God's counsel. In the past, false prophets have always cried out 'peace, peace' when there was no peace, and true prophets have often been treated as birds of ill omen just because they warned their fellow citizens of a future catastrophe. Their messages have often been scorned by the multitudes, who do not like the disturbance.

I have often wondered how the events in Jerusalem can affect the Jews of the rest of the world. I was in Montreal, Canada, in September 2000, the day those days of anger broke out, which later came to be known as the second Intifada. The following day I picked up the local newspaper and read that six synagogues in Montreal had had their windows smashed, doors smashed, graffiti painted on the walls, and that some graves in the Jewish cemetery had been desecrated the previous night. Then I realized that Muslims were present almost everywhere, and that events taking place in Israel or in Jerusalem provoke reactions wherever there are Muslims. Thus, the initial revolt took place in Jerusalem but was not confined to the city of Jerusalem. It provoked reactions wherever there were Jews, because in the Western world there is an Islamic diaspora in the same way that there is a Jewish diaspora. The time of Jacob's Anguish is not far off, wherever we may be. When Jacob is freed, no one will be able to persecute him anymore. If now we set ourselves to assuring Jacob that this time of anguish has already passed, while it is yet to come, and his coming is imminent, he will remain unprepared for the catastrophe, which will be vast and sudden. If instead we speak openly about his inevitable aspect, we will give courage to those who are part of the circle of the saved, the group of those who recognize the Messiah. It is well known that Christians living in Israel do not set themselves the mission of evangelizing the Jews. They are content to be gracious as ambassadors of Christ. Can we say that in the face of imminent destruction it is enough to be kind and friendly? Our duty is to tell all concerned that Salvation is already available, and that it is found in Jesus. In other words, it is urgent to promote the Holy Spirit instead of hiding it. If by reading the scriptures we understand that these things must occur in Israel, we have a sacred duty to warn those concerned about what we see and understand.

I often wondered if this was the time to ship Jews to Palestine. There are several organizations that specialize in this field, but my heart doesn't beat in tune with theirs. Speaking of the devastation that is about to happen to Israel, I am convinced that the worst thing anyone can do now is to move Jews into the very heart of the violence. Despite the harassment that some Jews already suffer among the nations, it is probable that there are better chances of salvation by remaining among them. But the Zionist organizations are so taken by the work they do, that the idea of stopping to reverse, or even just to realize the mistake made (without denying for this the good intentions that animated them at the start) represents a humiliation that many will refuse to suffer, which is why this topic is a source of real tension.

I was in Odessa, a port city on the Black Sea in the Ukraine. I was speaking in a church about Pentecostals who bragged to me that they had sent Ukrainian Jews to Israel. I told them:

Do not boast that you sent your Jews to Israel. Now you are faced with a spiritual duty, that of welcoming them back among you in the time of Anguish, when you will once again see them flee before the catastrophe. The day you are asked to take them back, your degree of holiness will appear more clearly than the day you set about shipping them to Palestine.

They had never seen things from this point of view. I had several discussions on this topic during the meals that several Ukrainian messianic pastors and church leaders offered me. The Lord gave me the grace to persuade them that my position was that of God, and that they needed to reconsider what they had done. Now they had to find places of refuge for those who, in time of danger, would possibly ask to return to the country from which they had left.

There is an important passage concerning the time of Jacob's Anguish, that of Jer 30, 9: “But those of Israel will serve the Lord their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.”

This promise is identical to the one we find in Ezekiel 37, 21-28. After the dry bones of the House of Israel have revived, and the reunification between the two kingdoms (Judah and Israel) has taken place, then the Lord will say to them:

‘My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all. They will follow my decrees, observe my laws and put them into practice.’

This aspect deserves to be taken into consideration in all the passages of Scripture that speak of devastation and a return to Israel: it concerns Jesus who returns as King of kings to inaugurate the Millennium and direct the nation that is now restored. » [112]

[112] The original of this text is in English. The Italian translation used here belongs to J. De Parvulis.

Rabbi Kaduri at 108 years old. Rabbi Kaduri's note.
(Written shortly before he died).

In early 2008, Rabbi Yitzhak Kaduri died in Israel at the age of 108. Before he died, he wrote on a sheet of paper the name of the Messiah awaited by the Jews. In the last days of his life Kaduri often spoke of the Messiah and his coming. A few months before his death he had told his disciples that he had met the Messiah in a vision, and had described him with traits that suggest Jesus Christ. After writing on a sheet of paper what he wanted to write about the Messiah, Kaduri asked that this sheet of his be opened and read only after his death. it was done so. The sheet contains in Hebrew characters the equivalent of the following words:

«He will raise up the people and prove that his word and his law are valid. I wrote this with my own hand during the month of mercy. Yitzhak kaduri. »

The first letters of the Hebrew phrase: Yarim Ha'Am Veyokhiakh Shedvaro Vektorato Omdim reveal the name of Jesus: Yehoshua or Yeshua.

In the Jewish quarters the controversy is at its height. Some say the will is authentic, others claim that this is not possible.

If Rabbi Kaduri's will is authentic, it means that the Messianic Kingdom is very close, and that it will be established by Jesus, the Man-God who sacrificed himself for Humanity two thousand years ago in order to redeem it.

Farewell (to Non-Jews)

Dear brother in Christ, the consent of the Gentiles to make sacrifices for the Jews, and the consent of the Jews to make sacrifices for the Gentiles is a manifestation of Divine Wisdom.

Does this go against your (our) wisdom? Exactly... Divine Wisdom is not human wisdom, and it is precisely Wisdom that today takes the initiative to remind us that the restoration of Humanity is not possible if that of the children of Israel does not take place first. The children of Israel are like leaven which raises the dough destined to become bread. For the past 3,000 years this leaven has fermented, and is now ready to be mixed into the dough that is us, Gentiles. But since all of us, leaven and dough, are endowed with free will, it is possible for us to accept or reject the idea of a bread prepared and baked according to divine rather than human criteria.

Divine criteria say that to deserve the bread we need we must pray and offer sacrifices for one another, agree to wash one another's feet. The union on earth between Esau and Jacob, an indispensable union for general peace and common happiness, will take place in this way... Affectionate greetings. – J. De Parvulis.

Farewell (to the Jews)

The dear son of Israel, Simon Peter, was one of yours. From a poor fisherman he became Pope, not just any Pope but the first in history. The same will happen to you. You are called to lead the nations, but to lead the nations a sense of justice is necessary, and this sense survives only in those who are immunized against pride. Peter received his anti-pride vaccine the night of his denial. He acknowledged his mistake and cried about it. In this way he obtained God's forgiveness, and the tears shed inoculated him against pride for the rest of his life.

You too will be absolved by the One your ancestors crucified. It is enough that you desire it, and you turn to Him asking His forgiveness for the blindness that has so far prevented you from recognizing Him as Messiah and Savior. Those of yours who imitate Peter by weeping over their sin will be forgiven and called to lead the nations, those instead who imitate Judas without expressing any regret, even if they have become rich and powerful with the price of their betrayal, will in the end die alone and in despair, like the traitor apostle. Their wealth will have lasted a day, an hour, a minute. The gestation period of the Messianic Kingdom that we have all been waiting for, for centuries, is about to end. The moment of his birth comes. Do you want a tip? Don't be caught unprepared as happened to the vast majority of your Jewish brothers two thousand years ago. Kind regards. – JDe Parvulis.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

De Lassus, Henri: «The anti-Christian conspiracy, or: The Masonic Temple that wants to raise itself on the ruins of the Catholic Church (La Conjuration anti-chrétienne, ou: Le Temple Maçonique voulant se lever sur les ruines de l'Église catholique). » This book is presented with Imprimatur, and is accompanied by a letter from Cardinal Merry Del Val who in name of Pius X congratulates the author. It was first published in 1910 (by Desclée, Di Brouwer, and Co., 41 rue de Metz, Lille, France), and reproduced in 1999 by Edizioni Scivias (Quebec, Canada).

De Parvulis, Johannes: «Agone mistico (Mystic Agony).»

De Parvulis, Johannes: «Il Sole del Divin Volere (The Sun of the Divine Will). »

De Parvulis, Johannes: «Mondo nuovo, vita nuova (New World, New Life). » Edizioni Gamba.

De Parvulis, Johannes: «Parusia intermedia (Intermediate Parousy)». Edizioni Gamba.

Des Mousseaux, Gougenot: «Le Juif, le judaïsme et la judaïsation des peuples chrétiens (Jews, Judaism and the Judaization of Christian peoples). »" Editions: F. Wattelier and Cie, [1886], Second Edition.

Drach, Paulus L. B.: «De l'harmonie entre l'Église et la Synagogue. (Harmony between Church and Synagogue). » Paulus L. B. Drach is a rabbi who converted to Catholicism. This book, very rare today, was published in Paris in 1844 by Paul Melier.

Even, Louis: «Sous le signe de l'abondance. » It is a new concept of monetary economy. Les Pèlerins de St Michel, Rougemont, Qc, Canada.

Gobbi, Stefano: «To the Priests, Our Lady beloved Sons. » This book, intended for members of the Marian Movement of Priests, is available through the national responsible for the MSM in the country where you reside.

JNSR: «Témoins de la Croix», Editions Resiac, 53150, Montsûrs, France. In Italy, JNSR's messages have been collected in several small volumes, published by the Segno editions of Udine.

Kowalska, Hélène: «Le petit journal de soeur Faustine (Sister Faustina's little journal). » Éditions Jules Hovine, 400 rue Jaurès, 59790 Ronchin, France.

Laurent, Achille: «Relations des affaires de Syrie (Syria Business Reports). »

Lémann, Joseph: «L'entrée des Israélites dans la société française. » Editions Avalon, 1987.

Meinvielle, Julio: «Les Juifs dans le Mystère de l'Histoire (The translation comes from the original Spanish: 'El Judío en el misterio de la historia' – 'The Jews in the Mystery of History'). » Éditions Scivias, Québec, 1997.

Michelini, Mgr Ottavio: «Confidenze di Gesù a un sacerdote (Confidences of Jesus to a priest). »

Rohling, Auguste: «Le Juif selon le Talmud. » Pontigny prepared this French edition and the publisher Savine published it.

Valtorta, Maria: «Lessons on Paul's Epistle to the Romans. » See also: «The Gospel as it has been revealed to me. » CEV Editions.